Fascist Revolt In Brazil Quelled By Authoritarians

President Vargas Personally Leads Defence of Palace Against Integralists
Number Killed In Rio Fighting

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—President Getulio Vargas, pistol in hand, personally led defenders of Guanabara Presidential Palace today as government forces swiftly smothered a Fascist revolt against his authoritarian regime.

An undetermined number of rebels were killed or wounded and hundreds were arrested.

The short-lived uprising, inspired by the outlawed Integralist (Green-shirt) faction, flared and died in the heart of the capital, where street disorders and futile assaults on public buildings marked its ineffective course.

Martial law was decreed, effective at noon today.

Authorities said Admiral Eduardo Tavares had been arrested as a participant in the uprising.

KNOWN TO POLICE

Police declared they had advanced knowledge of the plotted rebellion and said they had even slipped agents into the ranks of the Integralists to follow more closely progress of the scheme to overthrow Vargas, totalitarian ruler of Brazil since his seizure of power in his coup of November 10, 1937.

A gun fight at the presidential palace between besieging Fascists and Vargas' household staff highlighted the abortive rebellion. For three and a half hours the heart of the city was in agitation. (Turn to Page 2, Col. 2)

U.S. Naval Bill Given Approval

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House approved a Senate-House conference report today on the administration's billion-dollar naval expansion program, overriding a brief outburst of minority opposition.

The measure, as revised in the conference, would authorize construction of 46 warships, 26 auxiliary vessels and one experimental ship at a total estimated cost of $1,090,656,000.

Japanese Hear British Protest

SHANGHAI (CP-Havas)—British authorities protested to Japanese officials today following reports a British subject, Mrs. Groves, had been mistreated by a Japanese soldier.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 5 a.m. today—Ship reports are not available off the British Columbia coast and a low pressure area appears to be centered over the North Pacific. Rain has been general on the coast. Cloudy with cool weather continues over the interior. Fair, moderately warm weather prevails on the prairie.

RESIDENT HERE FOR 76 YEARS

Miss Eliza Ann Wynne, Who Arrived From England in 1862, Died Today

Miss Eliza Ann Wynne, 78, who arrived here in 1862, as a child of two years, aboard the ship Sillistria and had lived here ever since, passed away this morning at the family residence, 1126 Pandora Avenue.

For the last 20 years she had been ill, and was confined to her bed, but she remained remarkably cheerful and loved to talk with old friends of the Victoria she knew as a girl. She was one of the city's best-known and most respected pioneer women.

Born in Swansea, Wales, January 1, 1860, the late Miss Wynne, with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wynne, her brother, George W. Wynne, who died here in 1934, and her uncle and aunt, the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell of Saanich, arrived in Esquimalt Harbor two and a half years later after a voyage of four months and 18 days around the Horn.

A passenger on the same ship was Mrs. W. G. Cameron of Trutch Street, who was then a tiny girl. They remained fast friends from their arrival in Victoria.

Miss Wynne, whose father was officer-in-charge at the old Customs House here, went to the school conducted by Madame Petebou and was later prominent in the affairs of St. John's Church, known as the "old iron church," on Douglas Street. The Wynne family home was on Vancouver Street, near the corner of Johnson.

She is survived by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Agnes W. Wynne, 1126 Pandora Avenue, and several cousins.

The remains are resting at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel. Arrangements will be announced later.

Maximum Yearly Estimate For C.N.R.-C.P.R. Given Senators

OTTAWA (CP)—Maximum economies possible through co-operation between the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways were placed today at $10,000,000 a year by S. W. Fairweather, chief of the C.N.R. bureau of economics, before the special Senate committee on the railway condition of Canada.

These were "some and realizable economies," he said, which might be effected without undue injury to the public or impairment of necessary services. The figure took no account of any compensation for labor displaced in industries which might be forced to migrate due to abandonment of lines.

The railway economist was questioned closely by the senators on his evidence before the Duff Royal Commission on Transportation in 1932, when he gave $35,000,000 as an estimate of economies by co-operation and $56,000,000 as possible by unification or amalgamation.

Gazing Into Future Fame?

Wallace Louis Minto Jr. of Jersey City, shown above examining a beaker in his makeshift basement laboratory, is a young physicist who, at 16, may have made one of the greatest scientific discoveries of the age. The youth, a high school senior, is reported to have found a method of producing "artificial radium" and other radioactive minerals from ores obtainable in northern New Jersey and adjacent states at a cost of $250 per gram as contrasted with the current cost of $25,000 per gram of real radium. The Eastern Electronic Research Association is expected to make a statement on his claims.

Japanese Bombs Damage 4,000 Suchow Homes

Lives in Hotel

SHANGHAI (AP)—Chinese reported Wednesday 4,000 houses had been damaged and 300 civilians killed and wounded in an air attack on Suchow, base of the huge Chinese army defending the Lungshai railway.

More than 300 bombs were said to have been dropped on the city, leaving sections of it burning fiercely. Japanese said large stores of military supplies had been ignited.

Japanese warships and planes also continued intensive bombardment of Amoy, gateway to Fukien province on the south China coast, where the British destroyer Diana stood by ready to evacuate Britons if necessary. Fires were reported spreading rapidly through Amoy while 30 foreigners watched in comparative safety from Kulansu Island nearby.

(Reports from Hongkong said a Chinese air fleet of at least 30 planes had been transferred suddenly to Canton, south China metropolis, and had sunk a Japanese destroyer and destroyed a gasoline depot in raids on Sanchu Island, near the mouth of Canton River.)

(The planes, according to Chinese advice, also surprised five Japanese bombers near Canton and brought down two of them. They were said to have made two raids on Sanchu Island.)

British Columbia's income tax law is drafted on a different basis to Alberta's in respect of earnings on investments outside the province, provincial officials said today, and were of the opinion the B.C. law was not affected by yesterday's judgment declaring the Alberta Income Tax in valid in part.

The Alberta courts ruled the province did not have the right to collect income tax on earnings on investments outside the province, which were also spent outside the province.

MATHS BOGEY TO MEDALIST

Leading Scholar at U.B.C. Consistently "Flunked" in High School Maths

VANCOUVER—Alfred E. Carter of Vancouver, named winner of the Governor-General's gold medal for proficiency by the University of British Columbia, admitted today his high school career was marred by persistent failure to pass examinations in mathematics.

Carter, born in Victoria in 1914, was awarded highest marks of any candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in recent final examinations. None of his graduating marks were made in mathematics.

He shifted to French courses in his university studies, and next year will continue his studies at the Sorbonne, in Paris. "I don't think it would do any good to mention the high schools I attended," Carter told interviewers. "I went to half a dozen in Vancouver and Victoria—all because I was trying to find a place where they could get me through in maths."

Moderator Comes To Coast of B.C.

EDMONTON (CP)—Rt. Rev. Dr. Peter Bryce of Toronto, Moderator of the United Church of Canada, passed through Edmonton today enroute to Vancouver to start attending annual conferences of the United Church in the western provinces.

The series of conferences will be opened in Vancouver, with the Alberta conference in Edmonton May 25 to 30 and the Saskatchewan and Manitoba conferences next in order.

Irving Berlin Is Fifty Today

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. (AP)—Irving Berlin reached the half-century mark today. For the slender, black-haired man who has written 600 of modern America's folk songs, a 50th birthday has little significance.

"Let's forget about birthdays," he said. "Sometimes when I was 20 I felt like 60."

MOTHER FEARS GIRL ABDUCTED

Pennsylvania Woman Appeals For Return of Four-year-old Daughter

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Shirley M. West, expressing fear her four-year-old daughter, Marjory, had been abducted, appealed today for the return of her child.

In a brief statement, the first she has made since the daughter disappeared from a family picnic last Sunday, the mother said: "I want notice given that anybody who has her should return her to any American Legion post anywhere or bring her home. No questions will be asked."

The kidnap theory came after a fruitless search of the woods in which she disappeared and reports from Thomas W. Va., that a girl wearing clothes similar to Marjory's had been brought there Monday by an unidentified man.

Alfred E. Carter, Former Victoria High, Wins Governor-General's Medal

Local Students Take Bursaries

VANCOUVER—Alfred E. Carter, who attended high schools in Victoria and Vancouver, today was named winner of the Governor-General's gold medal for proficiency, offered annually to the student receiving highest marks in examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the University of British Columbia.

Results of the spring examinations held last month were announced today by Registrar Stanley W. Matthews after approval by the university senate.

Carter will receive the medal at U.B.C.'s 23rd Spring Convocation to be held on the campus Thursday afternoon. At the ceremony, the university will confer upon Judge Helen Gregory MacGill of Vancouver Juvenile Court the first honorary doctorate of laws it has ever granted to a woman.

Twenty-four years old, Carter was born in Victoria and has lived in British Columbia ever since. Next year he will continue his studies in France. Son of A. E. Carter, Canadian engineer now working in Arabia, Carter won his Bachelor of Arts degree with first-class honors in French. He attended Victoria High School for two years, leaving for Vancouver in 1931.

The results released today showed 340 students in all faculties had been successful in their final examinations and would receive degrees. This was 36 more than last year.

The faculty of arts and science awarded 236 degrees, of which 20 were masters degrees, 205 bachelors, and 31 bachelors of commerce. One woman completed work for her social service diploma.

The faculty of applied science will grant six masters diplomas, and 56 bachelors. Agriculture students qualified for three masters and 19 bachelors.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

The Kiwanis Club's gold medal for proficiency in commerce courses was awarded to Charles J. Knox of Vancouver, and the United Empire Loyalists' Association medal for history study went to Donald E. McTaggart, also of Vancouver.

The Lefevre gold medal and scholarship for proficiency in chemistry went to Charles H. Davenport of Revelstoke, who last year won a scholarship for highest marks in fourth year chemical engineering, and a prize offered by the Engineering Institute of Canada for outstanding work in the fourth year of applied science.

The following scholarships for graduates were awarded: The university graduate scholarship for "special aptitude for post-graduate studies" to Oliver L. Lacey of Vancouver.

The Anne Westbrook Scholarship for post-graduate study to John Bell Wright of Vancouver. The Dr. F. J. Nicholson Scholarships, for chemistry to William M. Morris, B.A.Sc., of Vancouver, and for geology to James McCammon of New Westminster.

WINS FRENCH MEDAL

French government awards made through the university by the French consul for western Canada as follows: The French government scholarship to Lloyd Hobden of West Vancouver; B.C.; the French government medal to Alfred Carter, and the French government book prize to Yoshimatsu Higashi of Ocean Falls.

The Native Daughters of Canada scholarship for early British Columbia history study to Arthur Wirick of Vancouver.

B'nai B'rith scholarships to Morris Bloom, B.A., and Herman Nemetz, B.A.Sc., both of Vancouver. (Turn to Page 3, Col. 4)

Leads Second Year

BASIL T. RICHARDS

In addition to leading Victoria College second year students in their April examinations, Basil T. Richards also took the Royal Institution and Frank Eaton Memorial Scholarship for the student gaining the highest standing in English in the second year, and the special book prize for excellence in second year Latin.

Cunningham by reversion, through scholarship rules at the college.

ASSIZES END IN VANCOUVER

Six-month Suspended Sentence Is Given Constable C. Tuley

VANCOUVER (CP)—Constable C. Tuley of the Vancouver police department was given a six-month suspended sentence on a charge of criminal negligence by Mr. Justice A. M. Manson as the Vancouver spring assizes closed today.

He was convicted on the charge last night. It was laid in connection with the death of Charles Fraser, 32, in a traffic accident here March 18.

Other sentences given by Mr. Justice Manson were: Nick Capella, 68, nine months on a statutory charge. Melford Johnson Woolley, 18 months on a statutory charge. John Stanberg, nine months on a statutory charge.

Mr. Justice Manson remarked on passing sentence on the 26-year-old Tuley that the fact he had this "unfortunate accident" does not suggest for a moment that he may not be a thoroughly good police officer.

In its verdict the jury recommended "the utmost mercy this court is in a position to give."

High Standard Maintained By Students at Victoria Institution

Leaders Tie In Averages

Basil T. Richards, whose marked ability in science won him faculty prizes at Victoria College in 1937, topped the sophomore class there in the general pass lists for 1938 released today by the Senate of the University of British Columbia. His average mark, 88.5 per cent, was identically the same as that of Maureen E. Evans who finished at the head of the freshman class.

"The faculty of the college informs us that the work of both the First and the Second year students is well up to standard," an announcement accompanying the pass list and scholarship roll, stated.

"Students who have had their examinations deferred on account of illness, and students who have been granted supplemental examinations, may improve their standing in September. Students who intend to enter applied science at the university, have passed in the work of the first year in arts and science, but have not obtained the percentage demanded in certain subjects for entry into applied science, may remove deficiencies in their work by taking the September supplementals. All students who are entitled to write examinations in September will be notified.

"The names of students who have passed conditionally in a subject, i.e., have obtained from 40 to 49 per cent in the subject, but whose general average on a full course (15 units selected in accordance with the university regulations) is 60 per cent or over, are not listed under individual subjects. Their names, however, will appear in the general pass list," the statement said.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

Scholarships and prizes were awarded as follows: Royal Institution and Frank Eaton Memorial Scholarship of $50 awarded to the student taking the highest standing in the English of the second year—Won by BASIL T. RICHARDS.

Agnes Deans Cameron Scholarship of $50, donated by Mrs. F. V. Longstaff, and awarded to the student obtaining the highest standing in the English of the first year and continuing the course in the second year at Victoria College—Won by A. M. FRANCES WALLACE.

Alliance Francaise Prize of $50, awarded to the student who has made the most progress in the French of the second year and who intends to continue university work in this subject—Won by M. JOYCE HARVEY.

David Spencer Limited Scholarship of $100, awarded to the student taking the highest standing in the Mathematics of the first year, and continuing the course in the second year at Victoria College—Won by DONALD H. ROBSON.

Kiwanis Scholarship of $100, awarded to a man student completing first year and entering second year at Victoria College. Selection of the recipient is made by the Kiwanis Club of Victoria in conference with the College Faculty—Winner not yet selected.

Quita Nichol Bursary of $50, donated by Mrs. W. C. Nichol for excellence in second year French. The winning student must continue at the university of British Columbia—Won by PHYLLIS L. CHRISTIAN.

Quita Nichol Bursary of $100, donated by Mrs. W. C. Nichol for excellence in first year French. The winner must continue at Victoria College for the work of the second year—Won by MAUREEN E. EVANS, by reversion to DAVID K. CUNNINGHAM.

SPAIN BATTLE FOLLOWS RAIN

Rebels Take General Offensive on Eastern Front As Ground Dries

HENDAYKE, France (AP)—The return of good weather to the Spanish civil war's eastern front today signalled the beginning of a general insurgent offensive against government lines which have held firmly through two and a half weeks of rain.

An insurgent aerial fleet mapped government positions for the new drive and bombers dropped tons of explosives on government militiamen to soften resistance. Strong winds swept the front from Teruel to the Mediterranean, drying the terrain quickly.

Insurgent dispatches said the Alfambra sector on the west flank and the Portell sector in the centre already were dry enough to permit use of Gen. Franco's motorized units. Alfambra is north of Teruel and Portell is to the northeast.

with traffic disrupted and police detachments ranging the danger zone suppressing revolutionaries and making arrests.

Firing echoed through downtown Rio de Janeiro. The Minister of War, General Eurico Gaspar Dutra, was wounded slightly. AIRPORT ATTACKED

The rebels also made an attack on the Pan-American Airways airport near the centre of Rio de Janeiro, but were beaten off.

The only brief measure of success the Greenshirts had was at the naval arsenal, which was captured and held briefly.

The bayonet charge by a force of marines brought rebel surrender at that point and the rebellion collapsed.

The war ministry said Plinio Salgado, leader of the Integralists, headed the rising, but the actual field commander was Belmiro Valdeverde, member of the high command of the party before its dissolution.

Salgado has been a fugitive since March 18, when the Government announced suppression of an Integralist plot to assassinate Vargas and other officials. The party was outlawed soon after the November coup.

The Integralist thrust at Guanabara Palace nearly succeeded, however. Witnesses said it might have worked had it not been for the cool, quick action of the President himself.

POSE AS GUARD
Disguised as soldiers and sailors, the Integralists marched up to the palace posing as the regular relief for the palace guard. The retreating guard apparently was deceived.

But the household staff, realizing what was going on, notified the president shortly after the spurious guard had taken over.

Vargas summoned aid from the war, navy and police departments. Then, arming his family and the palace staff, he opened fire on the Integralists. Military and police relief parties quickly arrived and overpowered the rebels.

Thirty Integralists were arrested in the palace gardens, abandoning their vain fight after being held off by Vargas and the palace staff until troops and police arrived.

While attacks were going on against the President's palace and other government buildings, another group of Greenshirts attempted to invade the residence of General Pedro Aurelio de Goes Monteiro, chief of staff of the army.

They also were repelled, as were other groups at the ministry of air, the army arsenal, headquarters of posts and telegraphs and fire department headquarters. At the last named place the rebels succeeded in starting a small fire, which was extinguished quickly.

Most of the heavy firing in the centre of the city, including some cannon shots, came after the first Integralist attacks had been repelled and the President's forces had started mopping up the city and arresting all suspects.

Former Long Island Man, Now in California, Believes Wife Dead

SALINAS, Calif. (AP)—William H. Parsons, former resident of Long Island, N.Y., revealed today he had received ransom notes after the disappearance of his wife, Alice, there last June, and later some of her personal belongings were sent to him.

Parsons said he was convinced his wife was dead, but he did not state specifically he believed kidnappers had slain her.

He did not disclose what personal belongings of Mrs. Parsons he had received.

Parsons, who has been living on a lettuce ranch here, expressed an eagerness to see the strange case cleared up.

Mrs. Anna Kupryanova, former housekeeper for the Parsons, and her 13-year-old son also reside on the ranch.

Parsons added that if his attorney, L. H. Levy, approved he would be willing to return and assist in the investigation of the case.

Majority of the Council had agreed, obviously was upset.

After a brief consultation with Viscount Halifax, British Foreign Secretary, and Joseph Avenol, League secretary-general, the chairman announced the question of Spain was adjourned to a later meeting.

SPEAKS BITTERLY
Government Spain's cause was placed before the Council in a bitter speech by Del Vayo.

He cited the Anglo-Italian agreement in a warning to the League that "realistic diplomacy" can lead only to war. He said the Barcelona regime "only hopes the Council will express an effective opinion" on Italian and German aid to the insurgents. He bitterly attacked the British and French negotiations with Italy.

Viscount Halifax followed the Spanish minister with a defence of the Anglo-Italian agreement and the European nonintervention agreement. He was supported by Georges Bonnet, French foreign minister.

ETHIOPIAN QUESTION
Haile Selassie was on his way to make a personal appeal to the League Council on behalf of Ethiopia, his former realm, but before his train arrived it was learned Soviet Russia and China had moderated their stands against the recognition plan.

This was the result of negotiations outside formal sittings of the Council, which convened Monday.

Litvinoff said he was convinced nothing would be gained by "prolonging the agony" beyond tomorrow's session.

China's delegate, Dr. Wellington Koo, was said to have recognized Great Britain's fleet in the Far East could be strengthened and thus become a possible deterrent to Japan's activities—only if the Anglo-Italian understanding.

The $10,000,000 estimate was "a guess, but at least a semi-intelligent guess," Mr. Fairweather said. It was impossible to make an accurate estimate. It was based on a prospect of $3,500,000 economy to be achieved by pooling train services and another $1,000,000 by abandonment of about 1,000 miles of line.

The rest was made up of smaller miscellaneous co-operative projects.

COMPULSORY PLAN
It was unlikely the maximum could be reached under the present co-operative arrangements within a reasonable time unless some tribunal was set up with power to compel co-operation.

While the witness said he had suggested pooling all passenger services in a passenger company before the Duff commission, he did not now believe it was necessary to go so far. He favored pooling all duplicating passenger services.

Government Spain's cause was placed before the Council in a bitter speech by Del Vayo.

He cited the Anglo-Italian agreement in a warning to the League that "realistic diplomacy" can lead only to war. He said the Barcelona regime "only hopes the Council will express an effective opinion" on Italian and German aid to the insurgents. He bitterly attacked the British and French negotiations with Italy.

Viscount Halifax followed the Spanish minister with a defence of the Anglo-Italian agreement and the European nonintervention agreement. He was supported by Georges Bonnet, French foreign minister.

ETHIOPIAN QUESTION
Haile Selassie was on his way to make a personal appeal to the League Council on behalf of Ethiopia, his former realm, but before his train arrived it was learned Soviet Russia and China had moderated their stands against the recognition plan.

This was the result of negotiations outside formal sittings of the Council, which convened Monday.

Litvinoff said he was convinced nothing would be gained by "prolonging the agony" beyond tomorrow's session.

China's delegate, Dr. Wellington Koo, was said to have recognized Great Britain's fleet in the Far East could be strengthened and thus become a possible deterrent to Japan's activities—only if the Anglo-Italian understanding.

The $10,000,000 estimate was "a guess, but at least a semi-intelligent guess," Mr. Fairweather said. It was impossible to make an accurate estimate. It was based on a prospect of $3,500,000 economy to be achieved by pooling train services and another $1,000,000 by abandonment of about 1,000 miles of line.

The rest was made up of smaller miscellaneous co-operative projects.

COMPULSORY PLAN
It was unlikely the maximum could be reached under the present co-operative arrangements within a reasonable time unless some tribunal was set up with power to compel co-operation.

While the witness said he had suggested pooling all passenger services in a passenger company before the Duff commission, he did not now believe it was necessary to go so far. He favored pooling all duplicating passenger services.

Hospital attendants said a three-inch knife blade was broken off in Westby's back when he was brought there for treatment shortly after midnight. Several hours later, he was reported "resting well."

Officer Sam Blake said participants in a party at the Westby home had told him the father and son engaged in an argument about another guest and eventually began fighting.

SALINAS, Calif. (AP)—William H. Parsons, former resident of Long Island, N.Y., revealed today he had received ransom notes after the disappearance of his wife, Alice, there last June, and later some of her personal belongings were sent to him.

Parsons said he was convinced his wife was dead, but he did not state specifically he believed kidnappers had slain her.

He did not disclose what personal belongings of Mrs. Parsons he had received.

Parsons, who has been living on a lettuce ranch here, expressed an eagerness to see the strange case cleared up.

Mrs. Anna Kupryanova, former housekeeper for the Parsons, and her 13-year-old son also reside on the ranch.

Parsons added that if his attorney, L. H. Levy, approved he would be willing to return and assist in the investigation of the case.

A Different Story Now

ONLY A FEW MONTHS AGO THE SUPposedly highly-efficient Japanese military machine looked like something at which to shudder. It had a record of unbroken success in the field. It had the finest discipline, the latest equipment, the most far-seeing strategic direction, and the proudest traditions of military valor. Subduing China was regarded as an annoying piece of business; but all obstacles would be taken in the stride of the soldiers of Nippon. Even at the early part of the year, after it had begun to dawn on the rest of the world that a unified China had seriously interfered with the plans drawn up in Tokyo, Prime Minister Kono-ye spoke in the most optimistic terms before the Imperial Diet. The following extract from the speech reflects his feelings at that time:

"It is now more than half a year since the commencement of the present conflict. The fields of hostilities have been extended from North China to Central and South China.
The valorous and daring operations of the Imperial forces have brought us victory after victory. Nanking, the Chinese Capital, quickly fell into our hands. The situation is developing most favorably for Japan.
While this is, of course, due to the August Virtue of our Sovereign, I am profoundly grateful for the loyalty and courage of the officers and men of the Imperial forces at the front and for the ardor and enthusiasm of all of our people at home.

"Now the government look forward to the emergence of a new Chinese regime which may really be counted upon to co-operate with Japan, and with such a regime it intends to adjust the Sino-Japanese relation and lend its hands in the rehabilitation of China, and in laying firmly thereby the foundation for permanent peace in East Asia."

For home consumption the foregoing was no doubt regarded as quite the proper thing to say. But last week's events in southern Shantung—to say nothing of the general change which has come over the scene since Kono-ye delivered the speech to which we have referred—obviously have caused the Japanese war lords who run the government to shake their heads in doubt. This does not mean that Japan has lost the war. Reinforcements are pouring in, and reverses in the field in the last few days may soon be made good. But the significant thing is that the supposedly invulnerable Japanese military machine has developed some glaring flaws. Her war god, after all, has been shown to be merely mortal.

This is worth keeping in mind. For the world these days seems to lie at the mercy of these "invincible" war machines. The dictators and the war-mongers have had their innings of swagger. Hitler and Mussolini have just finished a week of it in Italy—a full dress parade of all the latest machinery for the destruction of human life and material treasure. But they are being watched by the forces of decency. The present experiences of their Oriental ally should suggest something to them.

Art and Dollars

OF ALL THE COMMENTS MADE BY adjudicators at the recent Victoria Musical Festival there was probably one which particularly impressed those who heard it.
It was that of the adjudicator who, after pointing out errors into which singers fall, remarked: "And now you will probably go home, tune in your radio and hear a singer making all the errors I have warned you against, and he will be getting thousands of dollars a week for it."

Undoubtedly the adjudicator was correct, and some lovers of music and authorities on the classics, especially instructors, may be a little concerned over the statement. After patiently instructing their pupils they may find it difficult to explain why some singer who betrays all the faults of lack of instruction is hailed as a highly-paid artist of the airways.

However, to survey the wide field of entertainment from a purely unbiased standpoint is almost impossible. A smooth tongue and free flowing delivery of lines has brought thousands of dollars to comedians—talented ones and poor imitations—compared with a few hundreds to those who produce their "patter." A queer voice, even a stutter, or a lisp, has won others fame.

Fame and riches may flow to artists who offend every canon of professional technique —and evade the successful student. It is all a matter of the public's assessment of values.

Spain Beckons the Tourist

SPAIN'S REBEL GENERAL FRANCO appears to think he is considerably further advanced in his career as dictator of a country he has not yet quite subjugated than was apparent some time ago. The practical assistance he has received from Italy and Germany—and is still receiving—has simplified his job. But it looks as if he is becoming rather more optimistic about the final outcome than is warranted by realities if one of his latest pronouncements is to be taken at its face value.

This is to the effect that the north of Spain is to be thrown open to tourists this summer, that 40 special sight-seeing buses have been ordered from a United States firm, and that a campaign in behalf of what Europeans are now calling "tourism" already is under way and will be prosecuted with the utmost vigor.

It might have been supposed, that even Spain's tool of the Fascist-Nazi clique would have waited until he could have advertised a state of domestic rehabilitation a little more advanced than that described by current dispatches, or as portrayed by pictorial records, before going into the "Come-to-Spain" business on a grand scale. But those people who are always seeking new palliatives for ennui probably will "thrill" at intimate glimpses of a country quivering in its death throes.

We are told that that part of the territory in Spain to which the tourist will be taken still looks like the morning after a night air-raid. Thus one might almost suggest that if the course of international affairs does not shift its direction, the time may not be far distant when the scattered remnants of peaceful scenes may have to be preserved for the curious.

Otherwise All Right

THERE MAY BE SOME HEAVY MOTOR trucks in and around Victoria with a few defects which might be advisable to have corrected; but hardly one in need of so much "adjustment" as that seized by the police of Toronto the other day. Here are the things it had, or had not, according to the police account:

- No brakes.
- No lights.
- No windshield wiper.
- Defective horn.
- Defective steering.
- Defective engine.

Apart from the foregoing, of course, the vehicle might have been in a first-class condition. But this is the kind of contraption that ought not to be on the road at all. It is a menace to public safety and no sort of explanation can make it otherwise.

Food Allergy Real

HELP IS NEEDED FOR AN INCREASing group of emaciated men, women and children who are suffering from a new kind of starvation amidst plenty. These are the victims of food allergy—the people who cannot eat fish or tomatoes or wheat or eggs or milk or many other common and necessary foods.

These people are not just finicky and the trouble is not in their heads. They are supersensitive to one or more of these foods and their ailment is just as real, and sometimes more serious, as that of their fellow-allergics, the hay feverites whose noses are supersensitive to pollens.

Nearly two-thirds of the population has food allergy to some degree, Dr. Walter Alvarez of the Mayo Clinic told members of the Public Health Association. About 2 per cent of the population suffer from allergy to a severe extent.

These people need help, from bakers and food manufacturers, in getting enough to eat—enough food that does not contain the substance which poisons them. Poisons is not a strictly medical term in this connection, but the symptoms of food allergy range from hives and headaches to asthma and symptoms of food poisoning serious enough to kill if not quickly checked.

Many of these people, in order not to starve, must eat large amounts of one food, day in and day out. They thus run a good chance of developing sensitiveness to this food, and so further limiting their supply of nourishment.

BY COMMISSIONS

Hamilton Spectator

The Ottawa Journal laments the now familiar orgy of royal commissions which has marked our Canadian political scene in the past few years. What is possibly the most dangerous side of these commissions is that they take upon them an aura of expert-ness and perfection that the ordinary functions of government do not. Accordingly, a good many dangerous generalizations can be floated around to suit the sectional politician's game and justify his clamoring. What is said about one section of an industry is applied by them to the whole; any information garnered up can be used to fill the need of the moment. It has happened a good many times of late, and most of these probes have been distinguished by partisan persecutions and a stirring up of prejudices. But it is a splendid way for a government to skate around responsibility.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

FATHER AND SON

FROM WHERE I SIT at this moment I can see Mr. Pudbury's big red bull and his newest son. The red bull has had hundreds of sons and can't be expected to grow very excited over this one. After the first hundred or so, I dare say you grow rather bored with children. But the son, a fine young Jersey with the soft eye of a poet, thinks his father is fine. He hangs around with the old man all day and often lies down beside him, while they chew the grass meditatively by the hour, thinking those deep thoughts hidden from the inferior mind of man. And sometimes the son will gently lick his father's neck in a most affectionate way. The old bull smiles faintly but does not allow it to interrupt his serious thinking.

In a few weeks, when the son has grown a little fatter, they will cart him off to the butcher and you or someone else like you will buy him in the form of veal. The little calf doesn't know that. He thinks life is made for browsing in a green field and that every season is spring. He thinks life is fine and that no harm can come to him beside his dad. He doesn't know what is just ahead of him, and that soon all trace of him will be gone from the earth, that his sleek shanks will shortly decorate your roasting pan.

A philosopher, I dare say, could look at the old bull and his son and tell you they represent the whole story of life on this planet. He could tell you that the impending doom of the son shows the futility of all efforts to save the world from its present savagery, for we creatures who rule it are carnivores. We eat lovely young calves. We are a destroying, ruthless animal. And from that flows such things as the conquest of Ethiopia and China, all the great military wars and the larger economic war which never ceases.

The bull and the young calf don't know that. They think everything is fine and they are much happier than we who destroy them.

TWO THEORIES

A POLITICIAN OF SOME provincial prominence was telling me today that British Columbia should not hesitate to borrow $25,000,000 for the Alaska Highway, if it could get the money, because, he said, none of our debts would ever be paid anyway.
This is the theory of many Canadian politicians in and out of office and a large section of the public. It may be perfectly sound. At our present rate certainly we shall not repay our debts, federal, provincial or municipal.

In fact, you might say that our politicians were divided into two classes, those who believe in the repayment of debt and those who don't. On one side you have men trying with all their might to keep the existing system afloat and the country solvent. On the other you have men who have long ago made up their minds that we are bankrupt and that the sooner we go through actual bankruptcy and a good old wringing-out, the better, so that a new system of their devising can take the place of the present one.

Most reformers belong to the latter class, and they like to see the financial structure get more and more top-heavy, so that it will collapse and make way for their system as soon as possible. You will usually find that in the first class are men who own fixed investments like life insurance. In the second class are men who own real estate, which is not affected by the collapse of government credit; or own nothing.

Subconsciously, those two basic ideas—that the system is going to survive and that the system is doomed—color all the acts of government from our own City Hall to Parliament Hill. For years they have dominated the thought of our provincial legislatures and governments, so that there is a constant under-cover struggle between the sound money men and the repudiationists. For a long time the repudiationists seem to have dominated the situation.

Unfortunately this struggle is always under cover. The repudiationists never admit that they don't expect our debts to be paid.
The sound money men won't admit that they are travelling straight in that direction. They both ought to say what they think and then the public could judge between them, considering all the factors involved, and realizing the consequences of both policies, for either would be highly unpleasant for everyone.

DUST

IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN one of my chief contentions that small-town people see more of life than people living in a great city, as we do; and that the small-town paper is the true mirror of our human nature. As an exhibit to prove my theory I quote here, with the latest editorial utterance of the Prince George Citizen:

"Several citizens have brought complaints to the Citizen of the dust from the streets of our fair city that blows into their places of business and their homes. They want us to do something about it. Well, we too dislike the dust. We wish the 'city' moved the garbage earlier, and fixed the sidewalks where planks are missing and nails protrude and cause us to stumble and to fume and cuss. We hate those gravelled paths that scratch and spoil the heels on dainty feet, and make us buy more shoes. The electric light bill is too high, and the water is not soft but hard and full of lime, they say. The dog tax is paid so that's not so bad, but the poll tax is not and the rest are due next month in June, and the tax sale is in September. The mortgage is long past due and the house needs paint, the drains are plugged and we need new screens, and there's the chimney to sweep and the grass to mow and garden to weed. There's the assizes in May, and the Elks coming, too, so we've got plenty to do without getting mad at the aldermen.
So, if the mayor doesn't get the oil sprayer out, and settle this dust for you chaps who complain, we shall advise you to get a hose and a nozzle and settle your dust and your troubles together, for we've got enough of our own, as you plainly see. So we will not say a thing about dust this week."

Next time you are discontented with Victoria, or critical of our city government, think about the dust in Prince George.

Into the Taxpayer's Pocket the Hands Of Governments Go

By NORMAN M. MACLEOD

OTTAWA.

ONE SCHOOL of parliamentary observers who specialize in the long-range point of view are professing to see in recent events in federal circles the unmistakable portents of the end of an era in Dominion politics—the era of New Deals, or so-called "Forgotten Men," and of sentimentality in legislation.

That is the significance which is being attached on Parliament Hill to the brief of Hon. Mitchell
F. Hepburn before the Rowell Commission recently. The Ontario Liberal Premier is being cast by the federal political soothsayers into the role of the prophet of the things to come. And the things to come—as this school of observers foresees them—include balanced budgets, emphasis upon economy in administration, reduced debts, and lowered taxes.

It is out of planks such as these,
rather than out of unemployment insurance, more generous old age pensions, state medicine, and other New Deal ideas, that the political platform of the future is declared on Parliament Hill to be destined to be constructed.

PREMIER HEPBURN is credited in federal circles with having expressed the political and economic philosophy behind the new trend which is developing in public affairs in the following sentences of the brief which he submitted to the Rowell Commission:

"Our trouble, as apparently with other provinces, is to provide these needs (social services) out of other people's earnings. Under the capitalist system, revenue has to be raised by taxation, with the result that taxes are added to prices, and higher prices inevitably meet with decreased consumption and consequent increased unemployment—and an expansion of social services requiring additional taxation.

"Never was there a more vicious circle. Never anything, save war, more charged with disaster to civilization. Strong creditor nations have suffered economic paralysis by the diversion of income into channels of public spending; and Canada, on a per capita basis, is one of the world's notorious debtors."

THE FIRST AND superficial reaction to the Ontario Premier's presentation to the commission, so far as federal circles were concerned, was that Hon.
Mr. Hepburn was preaching a narrow provincialism which could only be antagonistic to the best interests of Confederation. The best-informed circles in the government do not take this view, however, of Mr. Hepburn's performance. As they understand his views, the Ontario Premier was arguing in favor of a low-cost economy for the provinces. He wants to reduce government costs so that less of the people's money will go into taxes and more into purchasing power, which, in turn, will go to swell employment and put the idle to work. And holding these views, he is not anxious to see the federal government's power to load additional expensive social services on the people enlarged. He does not want, for example, another government such as the Bennett administration to have the power to put into costly effect a program of so-called social reform such as the late Conservative regime devised on the eve of the last general election in a desperate effort to accomplish its own political salvation.

IN THE PURSUIT of this objective the MacKenzie King administration has really no quarrel with Premier Hepburn. The federal ministry believes in a balanced budget and has been aiming at one as rapidly as its responsibility for the economic condition of the country's unemployed would permit. It wants to reduce debt and taxation. The Liberal formula of trade expansion as a cure for the country's economic ills depends, in fact, upon keeping costs of government—which go directly into costs of production—down in order that Canadian goods may compete successfully in the markets of the world.

Times Reporter on Voyage of Discovery

By PETER STURSBURG

The Big Apple has sneaked up on old Toronto. Jitterbugs of the queen city are swaying and swinging, praying and kicking in a way that would make any Harlem hot-stepper jealous. In fact, you practically have to shag in self-defence. And this in the most respectable of dance halls and in the staidest city of Canada.

Montrealers may be appling, too but the English burghers are more concerned with what the French burghers are doing. All that you have heard of the rising tide of nationalism in Quebec is only too true. Europe's hates are infecting the population and the first symptoms of anti-Semitism are already showing.

Jews have been excluded from a public bathing beach just outside Montreal, and a summer dance hall which had one of the best orchestras in the city last year displayed a sign "For Christians Only." Jewish stores have been stoned by students of the University of Montreal.

In a hospital in Montreal,
French-Canadian doctors refused to work with a Jewish interne.
This may not have been entirely due to racial feeling. There are a few instances. There are many more inspired by rags preaching anti-Semitism and sold openly on the streets of this metropolis of Canada.

The Jews are an easy scapegoat for any nationalist movement, but the English minority in Quebec is afraid. With the French-Canadians realizing their increasing power at the polls, there are more and more signs of anti-English feeling.

By the way, the University of Montreal has a magnificent new home. The buildings are among the finest examples of modernistic architecture, and have a marvellous location on the side of Mount Royal.

But they are still-born, or rather still-built. The provincial government—to which the University of Montreal belongs—though it is entirely French—has not been able to find the money to finish them. Just enough money has dribbled out of the Quebec treasury to keep the pile intact. Even empty houses have to be heated in winter in the east, otherwise the plaster freezes and they begin to fall to pieces.

ABOUT COLDS

Dr. D. E. S. Wishart in Health
There is an old saying: "Stuff a cold and starve a fever" which is another hoary misconception.
In that form it is a harmful piece of advice. The original advice was sound and it ran this way: "If you are fool enough to stuff a cold, you will produce, and have to starve, a fever."

R. G. SHANKS TO SEEK VACANCY

Local Sportsman Will Be Candidate in Saanich School Board By-election

Richard G. "Bob" Shanks, 1090 Holmes Street, announced this morning he would be a candidate for one of the two seats to be filled on the Saanich School Board in the by-election on May 21.

Mr. Shanks was the first of three possible candidates to definitely decide to allow his name to stand in the contest.

Two others, W. A. Kettle, unsuccessful aspirant in the last municipal election, and L. M. Corke, 3375 Quadra Street, are both considering running but will make no announcement until the week-end.

Frank L. Tupman, choir-master of Metropolitan United Church, said this morning he would not run in the by-election but would wait until December and contest the regular election.

In announcing his candidature Mr. Shanks said he would work for a policy aimed solely at protection of the ratepayers' interests with efficiency in the schools. He would not take any stand on the present school board issue of the secretary's dismissal over which Trustees A. E. Hull and William Tomes resigned saying he could not venture an opinion until he had an opportunity to investigate it fully.

Mr. Shanks is a past president of the Kinsmen Club and was recently named deputy district governor of the British Columbia district. He has lived in Saanich 26 years and received all his schooling in the municipality.

Miss E. Moffat Queen Candidate

To Represent Scottish Societies in Junior Chamber Contest

Eleanor Moffat, only daughter of Mrs. E. M. Whyte and the late A. W. (Sandy) Moffat, has been selected to represent the Scottish Societies as their candidate in the forthcoming contest for a Victoria celebration queen. She was chosen Monday night at a representative meeting of the Scottish Societies of Victoria.

Miss Moffat is a native daughter of Scottish parents, and was educated at Sir James Douglas and Victoria High Schools. Later she took a commercial course at St. Ann's Academy.

The Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce is handling the contest this year. Several other organizations are making plans to enter candidates in the event.

Area Is Drained In Fraser Valley

PITT MEADOWS, B.C. (CP)—Two huge automatic pumps today were draining excess water from 8,300 acres of potentially rich Fraser valley agricultural land near here.

The two machines were officially put in operation Monday by Hon. A. Wells Grey, British Columbia Minister of Lands, at a public ceremony.

The provincial government loaned $11,000 to the farmers of the area to finance the project.

NATIVE FLORA IS DEPICTED

U.S. Visitors Delighted With Pictures of B.C.'s Wild Flowers

"Gardens and Flowers of British Columbia" formed the subject of an interesting lecture by William Clark of Vancouver at the Empress Hotel last night, as the last feature of Victoria's annual Spring Garden Festival.

Mr. Clark illustrated his talk with a number of beautiful colored pictures, taken mostly in the larger gardens of Vancouver, particularly in the Shaughnessy Heights area.

Two of this city's finest gardens, those of Mrs. Biggerstaff Wilson, Rockland Avenue, and E. D. Todd, Island Road, were also shown.

Mr. Clark's pictures were among the finest shown during Spring Garden Week and the out-of-town visitors were much impressed by the many slides depicting the color and rare beauty of the native flora of British Columbia, which Mr. Clark knows and understands so well. He showed practically every variety of British Columbia wild flower.

W. H. A. Preece was chairman and introduced Mr. Clark and thanked him for his lecture.

Spring Garden Week came to a close today and most of the visitors left on the afternoon steamer for Seattle, many of them taking seeds and bulbs of flowers and shrubs which had so delighted them in the local gardens that were open to the visitors.

The week brought many people to Victoria from all points along the Pacific coast. Garden editors of a number of magazines and big city dailies were also here and valuable publicity for the city will accrue from the stories which they will publish on the festival.

SCOUT NEWS

ST. MARY'S TROOP

During the last two weeks the St. Mary's Troop has been engaged in repairing and decorating part of the headquarters, especially the kitchen. Last week's meeting was in the form of a "doughnut feed" in celebration of the troop's victory in the recent annual Scout swimming gala.

Guest of the evening was S. Brock of Cables Restorer, who gave an extremely interesting account of various parts of the Orient which he recently visited. The troop has entered a team in the Scouts' Softball League. The troop was again successful in retaining the shield for Scout and Guide displays at the flower show. During the next month much time will be taken to prepare for Scout sports day on June 4. Preliminary trials will be held at this week's meeting.

FIRST CATHEDRAL TROOP

There was a good attendance at the weekly meeting of the First Cathedral Troop. James Lawrie opened the meeting and instruction and inspection followed. Games were then played under the direction of Jack Robinson. The following boys were chosen for the tug-of-war team: H. Ramsey, G. Baxter, J. Batey, J. Leighton, R. Wood, R. Neilson, Ketcherson, T. Rhodes, J. Lawrie, B. Lupton and D. Warner.

The monthly pennant went to the Grouse Patrol. The usual card party will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Taylor, 1600 Morrison Street on Monday, May 16, instead of Mrs. Warner's house as previously announced.

SECOND CATHEDRAL SCOUTS

The meeting of the Second Cathedral Troop was opened in the usual manner with the flag-break. A combination game of Scout's pace and relay message was played, with the Wolf Patrol winning. Beavers placed second and Badgers third. Patrol work was carried on in the corners and several boys passed their tests. The meeting closed with another enjoyable game. A Court of Honor was held directly after the meeting during which it was decided to select a softball team for entry the Scout League.

Three Lose Lives In House Fire

MONTREAL (CP)—Three persons were burned fatally early today in a fire at Monte St. Michel, north of Montreal. The victims were Mrs. Etienne Langlois, 50, and two of her daughters, Henriette, 20, and Etienne, 15. A defective chimney was believed to have set their home on fire.

The two girls were burned to death in bed. The body of their mother was found on the floor of her bedroom.

Etienne Langlois, the father, was taken to a hospital with severe leg and body burns. Three other occupants of the stone and wood building escaped.

Panning for Gold—1896

The cry "Gold in the Klondike" first echoed around the world in 1896. Men of many nations joined in the search for hidden wealth. British Columbia prospered, sharing the sudden boom which enriched the neighbouring territory.

Thirteen years before this momentous discovery, the Canada Life issued its first policy to a resident of British Columbia. Even then, it was thirty-six years old.

For ninety-one years, through war and epidemic, through twelve major depressions, the Canada Life has met its obligations promptly and in full. Among the strongest of co-operative enterprises, to-day its policyholders have well over $800,000,000 of insurance in the company.

her friends to call her, when asked yesterday if she had enjoyed her holiday here replied: "This is not by any means the first holiday I have spent in the spring in Victoria, in fact I believe it is the fifth. I have always arrived physically and mentally exhausted and as cross as a bear and gone home as a giant refreshed, and with mental pictures of beauty to brighten the world for months to come. When you come to think of it Canada's two best havens of rest for tired nerves are island ones and they suit different times of the year. Prince Edward in September and October to buck you up for the winter, and Victoria and Vancouver Island for spring and early summer to soothe the jangles that the strenuous winter of the north has left you with."

"To sail up the inner harbor to Canada's most beautiful front door—see the stately Parliament Buildings on your right, the shrubs and trees all abloom, while in front of you the formal gardens and the vineclad Empress on your left, the fine post office and some of the homes of big business sufficiently in evidence to remind you that Victoria has business as well as beauty is to feel the tension relax. You say mentally 'business go hang I am on a holiday.' Right at once you are."

ADMIRE GARDENS

"It has been a great pleasure to be here in Spring Garden Week and to have many kind friends to drive me round to see them and also to see the thousand and one spots of wild beauty, where every spontaneous effort seems to hold a flower. Beautiful as any of the gardens are the acres and acres of purple-blue wild hyacinths and buttercups, that spread on the open spaces of Uplands and Beacon Hill Park are even more thrilling."

"Not a few of the beautiful gardens I find have been made by ex-Manitobans, who having 'retired,' have probably worked harder on that job than they did for years before they came here. The famous Butchart Gardens, glorious as ever, I imagine were the first to throw open their garden to the public. They do it all the year round, but 'Garden Week' is a legitimate offspring no doubt of that fine gesture of sharing with your neighbors."

A HOLIDAY PARADISE

"But there, I become a veritable 'Sob Sister' when I start on the beauties of Victoria. To come down to earth I would like to say that having visited 27 countries in a trip round the world and many of the boasted beauty spots surrounding each, I can think of nothing better for a restful holiday than a month or six weeks in Victoria. To golf, fish, sail or whatever sport you fancy, to make long drives over the winding roads or over the Malahat with its glimpses of Mount Baker, to watch the rose and silver of the Olympics of walk by moonlight along the breakwater to the lighthouse with the waves breaking on either side."

"You ask why I don't come out here and live. To me this is a holiday world, something to hold in reserve as a treat to look forward to and I can only wonder why more Canadians do not treat it that way, instead of dashing madly off to lands where they don't know the language."

St. Joseph's Praised at Nurses' Graduation

Lt.-Governor Presents Diplomas at Colorful Ceremony in St. Ann's; Bishop Cody and Mayor Among Speakers

Many tributes to St. Joseph's Hospital and the devoted service of the Sisters of St. Ann were paid by speakers at the annual graduating exercises of the 1938 nursing class last night.

The auditorium of St. Ann's Academy was filled to overflowing when the 25 graduates, in their snowy uniforms, each carrying the bouquet of scarlet and white carnations, the gift of the Ladies' Auxiliary, filed on to the platform to take their seats. In the rear were seated the pupil nurses, and the front and sides of the proscenium were banked with the many beautiful flowers sent to the members of the class.

HIS HONOR SPEAKS

The graduates might well be proud of their Alma Mater, said His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, after congratulating them on the completion of their studies. In taking on their new responsibilities they would miss the friendly, guiding hand of the Sisters, under whose able guidance they had learned that a healthy mind, healthy body, tact and devotion to duty were indispensable attributes to successful nursing, he noted in wishing them every success in their noble profession.

Bishop Cody in an inspiring talk spoke of the uplifting influence of divine love, its inspiration in all phases of human existence and its influence on the moral order. The inspiration of the training of nurses of St. Joseph's was based on love of God, which embraced the love of all mankind, no matter how humble, and the desire to succor the suffering, he concluded.

HISTORY REVIEWED

Dr. George Hall, the chairman, congratulated the graduates on completing their course and successfully passing their examinations. The class was the 27th since the school opened and some 620 girls had graduated from it. Dr. Hall touched on the history of the hospital since its origin in 1876, and now has 250 beds, and a most up-to-date equipment.

He also paid tribute to its personnel, with particular reference to the Sisters of St. Ann, "who have no eight-hour law, but work early and late" in the interests of the patients.

Dr. G. F. Aylward announced the graduates and His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor formally presented each with her diploma, while Rev. Mother Provincial pinned on the medals.

SPECIAL AWARDS

A number of special medals, bursaries and prizes were presented as follows: Miss Catherine Aitken, medal for faithful observance of the school motto, equally merited by Misses Elizabeth McLeod, Irene Ashton, Patty Bigmore, Olga Cronk, Bernice MacKinnon and Phyllis Jesse. This was presented by the donor, Mr. P. de Noe Walker.

To Miss Amy C. MacDonald, bursary for the highest average in the three-year course, presented by Mrs. Frank Sehl on behalf of the donors, St. Joseph's Hospital Ladies' Auxiliary. Other students meriting the honor were Misses Phyllis Driver and Gertrude Smith.

Bursary for most efficient nursing practice, second year, presented by the donor, Mrs. Angus Campbell, to Miss Dorothy Donaldson, equally merited by Misses Mary McLean and Agnes Bailey.

Bursary for most efficient nursing practice, first year, presented by the Registered Nurses' Association of Victoria, drawn by Miss Eileen Jeffrey, equally merited by Misses Jean Thomas and Ada Fritsch.

Prize for examination in Christian philosophy and ethics, presented by Mother Mary Mark; equally merited by Misses Phyllis Driver and Georgina Popovich, other students meriting honor mention being Misses Margaret Read, Barbara Scott and Patty Bigmore.

First and second prize for examination in communicable disease nursing presented by Dr. Arthur G. Price to Miss Linda Ainsworth and Miss Agnes Bailey. Prize for highest average in examination for first and second years, presented by Dr. George Hall to Miss Dorothy Donaldson. Other students meriting honor mention were Misses Linda Ainsworth, Mary McLean and Kathleen Riley.

MAYOR'S BOUQUET

Mayor McGavin commended the splendid record of service of St. Joseph's Hospital to the community, and to Miss Amy Christine MacDonald presented a beautiful bouquet in recognition of her being top of the class.

The Misses Margaret K. Read and Elizabeth C. McLeod were joint valedictorians, after which the class repeated the Florence Nightingale pledge and sang the school song, "Loyal and True."

Dr. J. W. Lennox congratulated the Sisters of St. Ann on their long and devoted services to the sick and suffering of Victoria, and also spoke briefly to the graduates. He reviewed the wide scope offered in the nursing profession today as compared to a few decades ago.

Delightful vocal numbers were given by the Elizabethan Quartette, Miss Dorothy Parsons, Miss Phyllis Deaville, Dudley Wickett, and John Townsend, accompanied by Edward Parsons.

Miss Marjorie Pierzy, Kelowna, was bridesmaid, in a redingote, frock of yellow triple sheer over taffeta, and a white turban and veil, and carried an arm bouquet of cream sweet peas and tulips.

Mr. Cyril Carter attended his brother and Mr. Scott Dempster was usher.

MISS JEAN MENZIES

REV. JAMES T. RHODES

The engagement is announced of Jean, eldest daughter of Rev. Thomas Menzies of Victoria and the late Mrs. Menzies, and Rev. James T. Rhodes of St. John's, Newfoundland, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rhodes, Preston, Lancashire, England. The wedding will take place in Toronto early in June.

Crinolines For Tomorrow's Court

One Debutante's Gown Has 80 Yards of Material

LONDON — Miles of material have gone into the crinoline skirts that will bring back old-time pictures tomorrow night at the first Court of the season in the crinoline, gold and white ballroom in Buckingham Palace.

For one typical gown, 60 yards of white net, 10 yards of taffeta and 10 yards of chiffon were used. About two yards more made a tight little off-the-shoulder bodice.

Six girls worked 450 hours embroidering gold and silver stars worked in sequins on the skirts, which measured 20 yards around the hem.

Queen Elizabeth, who naturally sets the fashion, has chosen several evening gowns with wide skirts — most of them trimmed with glittering embroidery. Many women are following her example and many court gowns, therefore, will have the 1938 crinoline skirt.

One of them was made from 6½ yards of gold lame with a feather pattern embroidered with gold and silver sequins and diamond centres. It required 40,000 sequins and 2,880 centres.

Mrs. Bessie Taylor, president of the Rebekah Assembly of B.C., paid her official visit at a joint meeting of Colfax and Carne lodges. She was accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Merrithew, acting secretary; Mrs. Eva Doane, treasurer; Mary Combe, conductress; Mary J. Grant and Minnie Dempster, past president; Bruce Shaver, past patriarch; Brother Taylor, past patriarch of Medicine Hat; Mattie Dinsmore, D.D. president, and Brother Hurry, D.D. grand master. They were introduced by Mrs. Marion Taylor and welcomed by the presiding officer, Mrs. Edith Pearson. Sister Taylor was presented with a bouquet of flowers by Mrs. Heady, noble grand of Colfax No. 1, and at the close of her address, Sister Dinsmore, on behalf of the two lodges, presented her with a lovely lace tablecloth. A banquet was held, with speeches by the members. Next day a tea in honor of the president and the assembly officers was held in Spencer's tea room. Vocal solos by Mrs. Gosse, accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Holt, and a piano solo by Mrs. Ozilda Sangster were enjoyed.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. H. Jeeves are leaving on Thursday for Toronto to visit their daughter, Marguerite, who for the past three years has been attending St. Michael's School of Nursing, of which the graduation takes place on May 18.

Mrs. Francis W. Hartley of Monterey Avenue, who is visiting in Vancouver, was the guest of Mrs. A. D. McRae at "Hycroft," was the guest of honor when Mrs. J. H. Carswell entertained at a bridge luncheon in the mainland city yesterday. She was also a guest at the dinner given at "Shannon," the home of Major and Mrs. Austin C. Taylor, last night prior to the formal opening of the gymkhana by Hon. G. M. Weir, who was honor guest at the dinner party.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church, Sooke, met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. Lundie to wish "bon voyage" to Mrs. J. Dewar, who is sailing this week for Ireland. The guest of honor was presented with a leather writing case by Mrs. J. Murray. Tea was served and a social evening was enjoyed. Those present were Mrs. J. Dewar, Mrs. S. Lundie, Mrs. J. Murray, Mrs. V. Richardson, Mrs. J. McDonald, Mrs. C. A. Helgesen, Mrs. R. Fitton, Mrs. A. F. Brownsey, Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. Welsh, Mrs. E. J. Pontious, Mrs. J. Osland, Mrs. R. Seymour, Mrs. K. Jensen and Miss McMillan.

A surprise apron shower was held Monday evening at the home of a popular bride-to-be, Miss Eleanor Curtis. The evening was spent in music and games, the winners being Misses Annie Lipp, Bertha Hodges and Margaret Carr. Later, refreshments were served from a beautiful decorated table centred with pink and yellow tulips. The invited guests were: Mrs. Helen Sullivan and the Misses Nancy Stevens, Bertha Hodges, Aileen and Margaret Carr, Mildred Greene, Annie Lipp, Isabel and Jean Stuart, Eva Clear, Muriel Strong, Gladys Kitt, Helen Humber and Georgina Stuart.

Out-of-town visitors for the Spring Garden Festival met local garden people at a beautifully-arranged dinner party in the Prince Albert and Duke of Kent dining-rooms at the Empress Hotel last night, preparatory to adjourning to the ballroom to hear the final lecture of Garden Week. The long table was covered with green damask and bowls of spring flowers, tulips predominating, with tall green tapers in silver scones made effective floral decorations. Local garden enthusiasts at the dinner included Mrs. Biggerstaff Wilson, Judge and Mrs. P. S. Lampman, Mrs. Bruce Cash, Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pendray, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Morkill, Mrs. W. Curtis Sampson, Mrs. H. E. Beaven, Mr. D. J. Angus, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Hodges, Miss Angus, Major C. D. Steedman.

On Monday evening members of the South Saanich Women's Institute paid a surprise visit to the home of Mrs. Albert Hafer, East Saanich Road, to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. L. Hafer Sr., one of the oldest and most valued members. Games and contests enlivened the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by members of the institute. During the evening the president, Mrs. W. Bate, in a few

Women of Quebec for Convention

Will Be Permitted Representation At Liberal Rally

QUEBEC (CP)—Quebec province Liberal Women's Clubs will be permitted representation at the provincial party convention June 10 to 11, Liberal leader Adélard Godbout, former premier of the province, said last night.

Godbout said as far as he knew it was the first time in the party's history in the province that women would be represented at a provincial convention.

The convention is to be a rally of the province's Liberals to choose a new chief or reaffirm support of Godbout.

Although Quebec women have not the right of vote in provincial elections women delegates to the convention will have a voice just as Jeunesse Libérale—Young Liberals—organizations in selection of a leader for the party. Liberals were defeated in general elections in August 1936 when the Union Nationale were swept in.

The convention will outline a programme to be carried out until the next elections arrive.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to St. Joseph's Hospital will be held on Friday afternoon at the Nurses' Home. Nominations for next year's officers will be received.

The City Temple W.A. will hold a tulip tea in the social hall tomorrow afternoon. A musical programme has been arranged and a pleasant afternoon is promised.

well-chosen words, presented the guest of honor with a leather handbag and lovely bouquet as a token of appreciation of her help in the institute. The following members were present: Mesdames L. Hafer Sr., W. D. Michel, H. Lawrie, R. E. Nimmo, J. Nott, A. Doney, J. A. Patterson, W. Bate, J. J. Young, A. Hafer, F. Michel, W. W. Michel, M. Bleckford, H. Young, G. Polson, E. Gates, P. Cruise, W. Butler, and Miss Hafer.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. E. W. Hamber, accompanied by Mrs. Mae Rice and Lt.-Col. Vincent McKenna, were special guests at the reception which Mother Mary Marie, Mother Provincial, and Sister Mary Alfreda, Superior of St. Joseph's Hospital, held at the nurses' home last night for the 1938 graduating class following the exercises. There were present also members of the medical board of the hospital and their wives and members of the board of management, Mr. Charles Wilson, Mr. Alex McDermott, Mr. John V. Fisher, Mr. James Adam, and Mr. Joseph McKenna. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the training-school colors, red and white, the flowers used being carnations, tulips, dogwood, and white lilac. Mrs. Alex McDermott presided at the daintily-appointed refreshment table.

Mr. and Mrs. George Penketh will be "at home" to their friends on Friday, May 13, from 3 till 6 and from 8 till 10 p.m. at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Johnson, 1360 Bowker Place, the occasion being the 50th anniversary of their wedding.

Missionary Tells Of Six Heroines

The Victoria Presbyterian of the Presbyterian W.M.S. held a very successful rally and reception in honor of Dr. Buchanan in St. Andrew's Church, of Monday evening.

There was a large gathering present to meet Dr. Buchanan and hear of his long years of untiring work among the Bhils of India. He spoke briefly of six heroines he had personally contacted during his work there, namely, his late wife, who gave long and devoted years to the helping of others under the most difficult and unsanitary conditions that existed 50 years ago, and which finally cost her her life; his daughter, Ruth, who had sacrificed a splendid position in Ottawa and returned to India five years ago to do the work that lies so near to her heart, and is carrying on missionary work in the heart of the jungle without even the usual remuneration of a missionary.

He also spoke of the late Miss Mildred Soutar, who gave of her life so freely to help others to live, and finally paid the supreme price of sacrifice; and of Miss Robson, who has given many years of service to the work and has been compelled to return to Canada owing to ill-health.

Lastly Dr. Buchanan told of two very wonderful young Bhil women who had given their lives to the work of helping their fellow-men.

Miss Isabel Crawford, accompanied by Mrs. H. Warren, sang very beautifully "Nearer, Still Nearer." After the meeting tea was served and a social hour spent with the speaker.

The Dominion president of the King's Daughters and Sons, Mrs. R. S. Logan of Montreal, will be in the city on Monday, May 16, and will be pleased to meet members of the order informally at the tea hour in the lounge of the Empress Hotel. Tea reservations are in the hands of Miss Kathleen Roberts, G 1957. Mrs. Logan will also conduct an admission and consecration service in the rest rooms at 7.45 p.m.

IS YOUR BABY GETTING A TOOTH?

YOUR BABY must "get a tooth." But he need not get a fever with it.

If baby's mother is wise he won't. Here is what one wise mother, Mrs. Archie Begbie, of Conson, has to say: "We have not lost one night's rest through teething as I always use my old standby, Baby's Own Tablets. They are worth their weight in gold."

And Mrs. Alfred Hauser, of Guelph, Ont., says: "I have eight children, have used Baby's Own Tablets for 21 years, and find them very beneficial during teething."

Give these safe, little tablets at the first sign of teething fever. Sweet-tasting, easy to take, prompt in action, yet safe for the most delicate baby. Analyst's certificate in every package.

Effective in Constipation, Simple Fever, Diarrhoea, Upset Stomach, Colic, Simple Croup and Fretfulness. Get a box today. Sickness so often strikes in the night.

Modern Mothers —and Babies ARE LUCKY!

INSTEAD of leaving this important event largely to chance—the mother of today consults her physician. Wise mother! Lucky baby! And the physician will always stress the importance of diet. Expectant mothers need ample supplies of Iron because anemia can be a serious handicap. Calcium and Phosphorus are needed also—combined with Vitamin "D"—to aid in keeping the mother's own teeth sound, and to give baby a well-formed body.

Cocomaalt is rich in Iron, Calcium and Phosphorus. It also has a rich content of natural Vitamin "D" and an abundance of Carbohydrates and Proteins. It has a delicious flavor and is easily digested. Expectant and nursing mothers will derive much benefit from Cocomaalt.

Scotty Coming Out Of Desert
Colorful Death Valley Figure to Attend California Pioneer Carnival

BARSTOW, Calif. (AP)—Death Valley Scotty has sent word across the desert that he will be down here Saturday "to see if any of the other desert rats are out in the open."

There will be a pioneer festival, "Calico days," recalling the gold rush when mines flourished in the Calico Mountains, between here and Death Valley.

Scotty first came to Barstow in 1883. He was nine years old and a mule swamper. Some 20 years later, when he had left Buffalo Bill's wild west-show as a champion cowboy, and had become known as the mystery burro man of the desert with a heavy supply of gold, he cooked up plans which resulted in a shattering, chartered train dash to Chicago in June, 1905.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

1. You meet a woman acquaintance on the street—should you touch her hat?

2. You work in an office with several women and occasionally eat lunch with one—should you feel that you must pay her check or be considered a tightwad?

3. You are smoking a cigarette as you step on an elevator—should you part with it or go on smoking?

4. You are walking along a city street with a woman and feel the urge for a cigarette—should you light one and smoke it as you go along?

5. The woman says "No" when you suggest a second drink—should you insist that she have just one more?

What would you do if—As you are dancing with a girl you notice that her slip is trailing below her dress—

(a) Tell her the news, without making it sound like a national calamity?

(b) Let her find it out for herself?

(c) Suggest sitting out the rest of the dance?

Planning to Build?

How would you like a Cheque for $35.00

HERE'S A SAVING FOR YOU

When you plan to build a home, you naturally want to have the very best you can afford. But often the cost starts mounting and you are forced to cut down. Now, here is a plan that will not only help considerably to cut the cost, but will give you the best service possible.

If you install complete electric range wiring in your new home, and purchase a new electric range, we will make you an allowance of $35 as soon as the house is completed. If you have a completed home, not already wired for electric range service, we will allow you up to $50 on the cost of installing the necessary range wiring, provided you buy a new electric range, as specified above.

We will be glad to give you further details of this Home Builder's Plan and to go over your particular needs with you. Drop in at our Douglas Street Store, or phone G 7121 and ask to have one of our representatives call on you.

Wouldn't you like to have a smart new electric range like this McClary Table Top in your new home? It is positively the last word in cooking convenience and gives you everything you could possibly ask for, including two utensil drawers, high-speed elements, a cool table top, a large, very good oven with automatic temperature control . . . even a warming oven. See this and other electric range models at our Douglas Street Store.

Niagara Bridge Bill Is Voted

OTTAWA (CP)—The Ontario government's bill to authorize construction of an international bridge at Niagara Falls was passed by the House of Commons Tuesday night and sent to the Senate. Although it had a stormy session in the committee stage, the bill was given third reading without discussion or a vote.

TO GO TO GENEVA

VANCOUVER (CP)—Percy R. Bengough, vice-president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, has been advised of his appointment as representative of the working people of Canada at the 25th session of the International Labor Conference in Geneva June 2. He was notified of the appointment by W. H. Dickson, federal deputy minister of labor. Mr. Bengough attended the conference in 1932 and 1934.

Three Men In Mine Are Killed

DARLEYDALE, Derbyshire (CP)—Three miners loading a colliery truck were buried alive Tuesday night in a pit here. A fourth miner escaped the cave-in.

F. T. PRICE DIES

GALIANO ISLAND, B.C. (CP)—Franklin Tisdale Price, 56, retired employee of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Vancouver, died at his home on this Gulf Island Tuesday. Surviving are the widow and a son and daughter.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sick and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of a catalyst but have no catalyst or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 36c.

News of Clubwomen

The monthly meeting of the W.A. to Britannia Branch, No. 7, B.E.S.L., was held in the boardroom, Tuesday evening, Mrs. Hall in the chair. Mrs. J. Sheldrick, treasurer, will be away for five months and Mrs. Norris consented to act in her place. It was agreed to keep a wreath on the cenotaph, in conjunction with the other legions auxiliaries, each taking four months. Four new members were initiated, Mrs. E. Keating, Miss A. Dickinson, Mrs. E. Clear and Mrs. Gaskill. Plans were made for a card social on June 9 and strawberry tea and card party June 23. A mock auction was held and a good sum realized. The usual bimonthly card party will be held tomorrow evening at 8 in the clubrooms.

Centennial Church W.M.S. held its regular meeting in the church parlor on Monday, with Mrs. M. Elder, president, in the chair. Mrs. A. H. Rogers gave a devotional talk on "Peace," and prayers on the subject of peace followed, led by Mrs. S. Howard, Miss Tranter, Mrs. A. E. Farquhar and Mrs. G. G. Henderson. Miss Isobel McIntosh, missionary from Honan, China, was guest speaker, and declared that despite the hardships and horrors of war, there is a wonderful response to the gospel of Christ in China at the present time. A bouquet of lilies of the valley was presented to Miss McIntosh by Mrs. A. H. Rogers. Mrs. A. Couch reported two quilts had been completed for W.M.S. supply work. Mrs. A. Deaville was appointed corresponding secretary for two months during Mrs. S. S. Peat's absence on a visit to England. Literature secretary Mrs. J. W. Alton reported and Mrs. A. E. Farquhar told of 40 visits to sick and strangers. Mrs. J. Mitchell told of Goodwill Day, May 18, to commemorate the first peace conference at The Hague. Attention was called to B.C.'s liquor bill for the past year as being $16,000,000, and comparison made with the amount of food, clothing, fuel, rent, etc., that could have been purchased with that sum. The treasurer, Mrs. H. G. Hambleton, announced the Easter offering to be $79.45. A letter of thanks for cash and supplies was received from the secretary for medical aid to China. Miss Furse, president of First Church auxiliary, Vancouver, brought greetings. The meeting closed with the mizpah benediction.

Chapter to Hold Dutch Treat Tea

Final plans for the silver Dutch treat and bridge, to be held on Wednesday, May 18, at the Nurses' Home of the Royal Jubilee Hospital, under the auspices of the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., were made at the monthly meeting held last night at the residence of Mrs. William Ellis, Beach Drive. Mrs. F. E. Dowdall, the regent, who presided, will act as general convener; tea convener, Mrs. H. A. Stuart; home-cooking, Mrs. J. W. V.

Ex-Matinee Idol Sues Daughter

Another oldtime Broadway star is broke—and suing his movie actress daughter for support. This time it's Maurice Costello, 61, suave hero of the movie "Tale of Two Cities," who asks $200 a month from his blonde daughter, Dolores, former wife of John Barrymore. The father, shown above looking at a photo of Dolores and another daughter, Helene, also a film actress, declared that he is "as poor as a church mouse." Miss Costello, inset, said she had contributed for years to her father and recently made him an "alternative offer." She said she would fight the suit.

The program will include dances by two little pupils of the Russian Ballet School, Corinne Moore and Beverley Luft; solos by Miss Phyllis Deaville, soprano, and piano numbers by Miss Qwendoline Harper. Mrs. Carter will read tea cups and give crystal readings. Mrs. O. M. Jones, Mrs. K. Symons, Mrs. W. Ellis and Mrs. J. W. Hudson will pour tea.

Mrs. Dowdall was appointed delegate to the National annual meeting in Vancouver and will carry the chapter's standard, in the absence of the standard bearer.

The chapter paid $250.08 for milk for the months of March and April, the report showed. Flowers will be placed on the Cenotaph on May 23 by the chapter. Mrs. H. K. Perry was welcomed as a new member. Following the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. H. A. Stuart and Mrs. S. Colgate.

Gorge Vale Plans Flannel Dance

Gorge Vale Golf Club will mark the formal opening of the new addition to its clubhouse with a flannel dance on Friday evening, June 3, to which members and friends are cordially invited.

The arrangements for the affair are in the hands of a strong committee, including Mrs. H. H. Allen, Mrs. D. R. Hurdle, Mrs. L. Silburn, Mrs. A. Creffield, Messrs. O. P. Hurdle, W. Marshall, R. T. Brindle and "Bunny" Thomson.

The new extension has more than doubled the size of the clubhouse, and the addition of a fine stone fireplace and new furnishings has enhanced its attractiveness and comfort.

Water from melted ice will freeze three times faster than water from condensed steam if both are placed in a temperature of 5 degrees below zero Centigrade, according to a report from the National Academy of Sciences.

Perishable, standard, dry, bread, off-grade, and cull are the six classifications into which dates are divided.

Urges Graduates To Use Restraint

VANCOUVER—President's L. S. Kilnick of the University of British Columbia told the 1938 graduating class at their annual banquet that "there is no reason why University graduates should not set out modestly but confidently to reform society." He praised the students for their action in aiding the university during the past four years, but warned them against demanding too much from their elders. "Always remember that the older generation have had more experience than you," he said.

NO EARLY CONVENTION TORONTO (CP)—President W. H. Ireland of the Ontario Conservative Association said today he had decided against calling a provincial party convention by June 15 as requested by the "Committee for Conservative Action."

Moore Leads Giants Home

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

IF DAUBER, THE blunderer, of Maurice Peters, aboard him, can manage to make a few less mistakes, William du Pont's stretch-running son of Pennant should win the Preakness on Saturday. Ten days ago Herbert Woolf, the Kansas City department store mogul, didn't think enough of Lawrin to pay a $1,500 Preakness entrance fee. So in the historic Pimlico fixture, the richest of all three-year-old engagements this year at $70,000 added, Dauber will not be annoyed by the big bay he chased home in the Kentucky Derby.

Dauber came from nowhere to be second to Stagehand in the $50,000 Santa Anita Derby. He is everlastingly coming from nowhere to be second to some other or another. But with Lawrin and Stagehand out of it Dauber may get his big break in the Preakness.

Of course, new trouble may develop from any one of a half-dozen of nine nags going in the Preakness who did not start in the Derby. The surprising result in the Blue Grass — with the favorites, Fighting Fox and Bull Lea, folded up like camp stools — has brought about a sharp revision of opinions and a new development of battle lines. While the veteran trainer hopes to correct the sulking Fighting Fox's difficulty with blinkers, Stofnscud of the Wheatley stable suddenly becomes the top half of the Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons entry in the Preakness. And Hal Price Headley, who chose Menow over Bourbon King for the Derby, now banks on the latter.

Owners and trainers held Fighting Fox and the Keeneland track record-setting Bull Lea in such high regard that Stormscurd, Bourbon King, Neddy, Sun Egret, Bull Whip, Pastured, Cravat, and the crack filly Anafame were not shipped from the east to Louisville. In view of developments at the Downs, it's hard to know what they were afraid of. Another good one going in the Preakness, which is a mile and three-sixteenths, is Quick Devil, a son of Diavolo, who looked mighty sweet copping a pair of races at Jamaica.

Neddy, though disappointed in the Wood Memorial, apparently is an animal that is late coming to hand. Neddy did nothing in the spring a year ago, but developed so well in the fall that he bagged the Pimlico Futurity. Bourbon King finished away back in the Wood, but a repetition of his Chesapeake Stakes victory might stir up trouble in the Preakness. Anafame has to be considered, but we doubt that she will come into her own until she hits the first important events for her sex, the Acorn at a mile and the Oaks at a mile and three-eighths, feature of the current meeting at Belmont Park. Bull Whip, Cravat and Pastured figure to get nowhere in a hurry in the Preakness.

Getting back to the Derby, Dauber was reported by several experts the finest horse in the race — but seems to be one of those thoroughbreds that is always in difficulties. Dauber got away from the post last in the Derby, as is his custom. He got into two pockets and then was forced to go wide. Dauber did not do much until he straightened out in the backstretch. There he moved up and Peters tried to get him through on the rail, but didn't have the good fortune that the money-riding Eddie Arcaro had with Lawrin. Shortly after passing the half-mile pole, Peters was forced to pull Dauber up when one of the leaders closed over toward the rail. From there on it was take to the outside, and turning into the stretch the sapphire colors and blue cap could be seen on the far outside. Peters waited too long and lost too much ground. Giving you a rough idea of just how good a finisher Dauber is, the chestnut picked up six or seven lengths in the last three-eighths and pushed Lawrin at the wire, to which he was beaten a length.

Gets Four Hits as National Baseball Leaders Knock Over Chicago 5 to 1

After a good pitching staff and a couple of good sluggers down in the "cleanup" spots, one of the most valuable assets a ball club can have is a good lead-off man. And there you have another reason for the success of New York Giants, breezing along with a 4½-game lead in the National League.

In Joe Moore, the Giants have an outfielder about as adept at getting on base and stirring up trouble as anyone in the circuit. He's hitting a cool .356 now with 31 hits, and 16 times comrades Jim Rippe, Mel Ott and Hank Leiber down in the "waist" of the lineup have brought him home.

He provided the hitting thunder yesterday and Harry Gumbert was equally successful on the pitching mound as the Giants whipped the second-place Chicago Cubs for the second time 5 to 1.

Joe made four hits, twice when he was leading off. He opened the game with a single and before the inning was over the Giants had three runs and Bill Lee, Chicago starting flinger, was taking a shower. Moore drove in another tally when the Giants completed their scoring off Charley Root in the sixth.

CARDS GO UNDER

Brooklyn Dodgers also found the value of good lead-off hitting as they belted over St. Louis Cardinals, next opponents of the league leaders 10 to 2. Goody Rosen, the Toronto boy recently promoted to the No. 1 spot, connected safely three times in five attempts, scored one run and drove in one as he hoisted his average to .368.

Although Washington's Senators increased their American League lead to a full game by defeating St. Louis Browns 8 to 6 and Cincinnati Reds belted over the Phillies 7 to 3, these games might as well have been called off like four others were from the front-office viewpoint. Only about 3,000 customers turned out at Washington and 1,133 at Cincinnati. The St. Louis attendance was 1,410.

COAST LEAGUE

A third baseman who turned pitcher with hopes of crashing the majors, today had more strikeouts to his credit than any other pitcher in the Coast Baseball League.

He was Gene Lillard, property of the National League Chicago Cubs. Last season with the San Francisco Seals Lillard played every position but catcher. He was recalled by the Cubs at the end of the season and sent to Los Angeles.

Last night he won his fifth game in seven starts by fanning 11 Portland Beavers to raise his total for the season to 50. Portland nicked Lillard for four runs in the seventh inning, but he weathered the storm, fanned four players in the last two innings and won the game, 9 to 5.

As a matter of fact all of the winning teams yesterday got good pitching performances. Sad Sam Gibson of San Francisco Seals fanned nine, beating Sacramento Solons 9 to 3; Seattle's Dick Barrett whiffed nine Oaks to win 4 to 2 and Manuel Salvo of San Diego fanned six Hollywood Stars before he did a balloon ascension. Howard Craghead relieved him, fanned two more and was credited with a 5 to 4 win, which increased the Padres league leadership.

Field Split Up at Start of Kentucky Derby

None of the wise-money boys, who skipped carelessly over Lawrin's name when they doped the 64th Kentucky Derby Saturday, had any reason to worry about their bets on touted favorites as the pack went into the quarter, shown above, with Lawrin, indicated by arrow, in the ruck and badly boxed against the rail. But they reckoned without the Missouri hill-bill colt's stout heart. Horses leading the pace in the above picture are Menow, Fighting Fox, the favorite, and Mountain Ridge, who all finished out of the money.

Golden Sovereign Is Race Winner

NEWMARKET, Eng. (CP)—

Sir Abe Bailey's Golden Sovereign today won the Newmarket stakes, important pre-derby race, defeating the Earl of Derby's Greenwich by 1½ lengths. Colonel H. S. Follet's Malabar was third in the field of six, a short head behind Greenwich.

Golden Sovereign started at 100 to 30, Greenwich at 11 to 8 and Malabar at 7 to 1. The race, first run in 1889, over 1¼ miles, two furlongs short of the derby distance. It carries a purse of about £1,000 ($5,000).

"Sandy" Is Suggested

NEW YORK—There's been a growing suspicion lately that the National Baseball League put over a fast one during the winter and supplies its boys with a hopped-up ball.

They were supposed to have taken some of the rabbit out of their official pellet and to have made things easier for their pitchers by adding a strand to the lacing. Yet all the evidence has been to the contrary. The batters have been knocking home runs like they never knocked them before, and such a veteran flinger as Carl Hubbell of the Giants has complained the ball is coming back at him so fast he doesn't have a decent opportunity to duck.

Crack Corinthians In Football Show Tonight

SOCCER TEAMS AT BANQUET

Visiting Corinthians and Local Players Guests at Civic Affair

Members of the touring Islington Corinthians football team, the Victoria players who will oppose them in a match at the Athletic Park tonight at 6.15, along with local and provincial soccer officials were the guests at a civic dinner held last night at the Empress Hotel. Mayor Andrew McGavin acted as chairman.

On behalf of the city of Victoria Mayor McGavin extended a hearty welcome to the visitors. "I know you will enjoy yourselves in our city being, as it is so often referred to, as 'a bit of Old England,'" Mayor McGavin said. "You come here with a great record and I know Victoria fans are going to witness a great exhibition. My only wish is that when you return home you never forget your tour of Canada, and that one day some of you will immigrate to this country and remain as I did so many years ago," he said.

Replying on behalf of the Corinthians Manager Thomas Smith stated he and his players were glad to reach Victoria as they had heard so much about the Capital City of British Columbia since arriving in North America. "We are delighted to be here and are also pleased your city greeted us with a typical English summer day," Smith laughingly remarked. He was referring to the rain. Manager Smith stated he was looking forward to a fine exhibition of soccer against the local eleven and said his players would welcome a return to good old English turf. This remark was a result of the match played in Nanaimo on that famous up-land cricket pitch.

Other speakers during the dinner were Aldermen Bob Dewar, Archie Willis, John Worthington, Capt. B. J. Gadsden, Alex. Peden and W. H. Davies; Alex. Robertson, local soccer commissioner; Charlie Jones, Vancouver, member of the B.C. Football Commission; John Baxter and J. A. Harrison.

The Corinthians and Victoria players were introduced by Managers Smith and Jimmy Hall, respectively.

With Jack Braithwaite at the piano and John Sherwood acting as leader the visiting players rendered their club song while Phil Hughes was at the piano for community singing. Following the dinner the Corinthians were taken to radio station CFCT and interviewed over the air.

This morning the Corinthians were taken on a drive to Butchart's Gardens and after viewing the gardens were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart at tea.

The announcement was made yesterday by Fred Cabell, president of the B.C.R.U.

Present plans made in California call for a national and international rugby tournament. Oxford University has also been invited to send a team to San Francisco for the event.

The British Columbia representatives will travel to California with all expenses paid, at different dates. According to tentative arrangements the matches will be played late in April or early in May. A new field for English rugby is under construction on the Exposition grounds.

The Vancouver Island Outboard Association will hold a general meeting at the club rooms, 1342 Pandora Avenue, tonight at 8.

be following a similar plan. He called on Goldstein, Kline, Rozhon, Krubaek and Mercedes Desutter to start the game and through the first half the only substitute he used was Natalie Young. He sent Helen Koczynski into the game for a few minutes after Rozhon was ruled off in the third quarter and did not use Marion Desutter until Goldstein was sent from the floor with only three minutes of the last quarter remaining.

Grads' shooting accuracy, which ranged up to 45 per cent during previous games this year, sank to about 30 per cent. They counted 17 of 56 field tries, compared with 14 of 50 or 28 per cent for the All-Stars.

One of Page's former stars, Mrs. Eddie Shore, had the honor of throwing up the ball for the initial toss-up. Before her marriage to the Boston Bruins hockey star, Mrs. Shore was Kate McRae, a guard.

Percy Fitzsimmons Is City Snooker Champ

Defeats Charlie Irish Four Games to Three in Final; Billiard-Match Friday

Percy Fitzsimmons is the new city snooker champion. In a keenly contested final last night in the Metropolitan Billiard Parlors "Fitz" defeated Charlie Irish four matches to three before a large audience. Fitzsimmons is a former holder of the city English billiards title.

During the matches Fitzsimmons had high breaks of 25, 23 and 20 while Irish's best effort was a 17.

Irish got away to a good start by winning the first game but "Fitz" came back strong to win the next three. Still much in the fight, Irish copped the next two to even matters at three games apiece. Pulling a 20 break, Fitzsimmons made a walkaway of the seventh and deciding game, winning 67 to 23.

On Friday night at the Metropolis an exhibition English billiards match will be played between Bert Irish, local professional, and Art McKittrick, recently crowned city amateur titleholder. Irish will attempt to play 750 points to McKittrick's 500. Play will get under way at 8.

Tourists' Record Good

English Amateurs Battle Victoria All-stars in Match at 6.15

Reputed masters of the swinging, quick-shifting style of English football, the touring Islington Corinthians will go on show tonight at the Athletic Park at 6.15, when they stack up against a Victoria all-star eleven. With the match creating a great deal of interest, the attendance is expected to hit a new peak for Victoria.

Corinthians will be striving for their first Canadian victory. After opening in Vancouver with a 2 to 2 draw the tourists went over to Nanaimo and suffered a 3 to 2 setback. The English players explained their defeat up-land yesterday on arrival in the city as follows: "The pitch at Nanaimo beat us." With only 18 men on their roster, the Corinthians refused to take chances on the cinders at Nanaimo and as a result their offensive play suffered.

The English squad plays the deep "W" formation, made so famous in English football by Charlton Athletic, who toured Canada last season.

According to reports the Corinthians have put on two very interesting exhibitions in their British Columbia matches to date and tonight's engagement is expected to be no exception. Members of the visiting team who will bear extra watching tonight will be John Miller at outside left, Jack Braithwaite at outside right, Dick Tarrant, Irish international, at centre-forward and Johnny Sherwood at inside right.

LOCALS ARE READY
Manager Jimmy Hall of the Victoria team stated today he expected his boys to give the Corinthians a stiff game. "They have all trained faithfully, and are in good condition for the test," he said.

The match will be refereed by T.M. Robb, with Percy Shrimpton and J. C. Dowds as linesmen.

The starting line-ups will be as follows:

Victoria—Goal, W. Rowe; backs, George Leggett and Jack O'Keefe; half-backs, Cliff and Glen Robbins and Les Kennedy; forwards, George Payne, Jimmy Worswick, Noel Morgan, Alex Ross and Gordon Bell.

Corinthians—Goal, R. Wingfield; backs, P. Clark and A. Buchanan; half-backs, K. Wright, A. Martin and L. Bradbury; forwards, J. Braithwaite, J. Sherwood, R. Tarrant, W. Miller and J. Miller.

PLAY KEEN IN WOMEN'S GOLF

Majority of Matches in B.C. Championship at Vancouver Are Close

VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia women's amateur golf championship was assured for Vancouver yesterday as Victoria's lone contestant bowed out of the title hunt before a slim Shaughnessy shot-maker in the first day of match play.

Mrs. A. C. Stickley of Colwood, who Monday won the medal round with an 82, went down before the steady play of Miss Lillian Boyd, 4 and 2.

Elimination of the Victoria woman left only Vancouver players in the championship flight as the field narrowed to eight.

Mrs. J. McIlraith of Uplands was the only Victoria to come through with a victory yesterday, beating Mrs. C. S. Dawe of Shaughnessy, 3 and 2, in a second flight match.

Mrs. R. P. Baker of Jericho won from the defending champion, Mrs. E. E. Jackson of Uplands, by default, and Mrs. H. G. M. Wilson of Shaughnessy defeated Mrs. Z. Huse of Colwood, 3 and 2, in two other second flight matches.

Results of other matches in the championship flight were: Mrs. S. Thompson defeated Marie McNab, 3 and 2; Mrs. H. O'Callaghan defeated Mrs. A. B. Graham, 5 and 4; Mrs. W. M. Silcock defeated Mrs. H. R. Wade, 2 and 1; Miss W. Evans defeated Mrs. P. Traill, 3 and 2; Mrs. T. Melton defeated Miss P. Leuty, 2 and 1; Mrs. J. N. Clayton defeated Mrs. A. Eadie, 4 and 3; Miss Kay Farrel defeated Mrs. M. E. Nasmyth, 3 and 2.

Charlie McCarthy Takes to Walking

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. (AP) — Charlie McCarthy, the pinewood prodigy, walked like a man today. Edgar Bergen's little dummy has been furnished with pliable legs and arms which move whenever Bergen wishes—just like Charlie's jaw. Movie officials had insisted Charlie needed realistic limbs. He should get off Bergen's knee and stand on his own feet, they argued.

Help Rebuild and Hold Your Vital Energies and Driving Power

● You may be at that critical age when so many begin to feel themselves sliding downhill—to feel mentally and physically "through". No energy—always fatigued out—grumpy—irritable—no courage—no self-confidence. You feel unable to tackle anything new—everything seems an impossible task—you feel yourself giving way to more energetic, more vigorous men.

These are all symptoms of "premature old age"—of the morbid depression and discouragement that come of having allowed your vital energies to fall to a low ebb. You feel dejected. But you're not "through"! Your sagging energies are waiting to be fortified and rebuilt. Like thousands of others, you can help regain your old driving power and stamina—through the simple use of PHYLOSAN (pronounced Fill-O-San).

Phyllosan tablets are the discovery of one of the world's leading physicians—Dr. E. Buerger, Professor of Medicine at the University of Berne, Switzerland. Phyllosan contains no habit-forming drugs, no animal extracts. A product whose principal ingredient comes from purely natural sources, Phyllosan cooperates with the natural processes of your body to enrich and invigorate your blood, strengthen your nerves, rebuild all your vital forces. And the beneficial effects are not temporary but lasting.

Just two tiny tablets before meals. Yet take them regularly, and soon you will begin to feel yourself "coming back" both physically and mentally—improved in energy—buoyant, vigorous—ready to take work and play in full stride—self-confident. If you are past forty you will probably begin to feel younger! Start taking PHYLOSAN tablets today.

LIMITS SET FOR RADIO TALKS

Premier King Indicates CBC Will Bar Criticism of Other Nations' Affairs

OTTAWA (CP)—A discussion on radio broadcasting featured the work of the House of Commons yesterday evening. From it emerged a suggestion by Prime Minister King that broadcasts critical of internal affairs of other countries should be curbed by the corporation.

T. L. Church, Conservative, Toronto-Broadview, started the radio discussion with a statement that he thought it was "a great mistake to have to listen to this man Ferguson from Winnipeg. This gentleman and his kind are opposing the broad principles of the Chamberlain government. The Prime Minister of Great Britain has ordered the British Broadcasting Corporation to stop many of these broadcasts."

(Recently before the House radio committee Hon. J. Earl Lawson, Conservative, South York, Ont., asked that an address by G. V. Ferguson, managing editor of the Winnipeg Free Press, criticizing foreign policies, be tabled. His request was granted.)

Some of the topics covered in radio broadcasts could not be touched by members in the House, said Mr. Church, because of the gravity of the international situation. He objected to attacks on British foreign policies and the upholding of Pan-Americanism. Canada today was in the same position as 100 years ago, dependent not on the Monroe Doctrine but the British army and navy.

The Prime Minister said he was "very much in sympathy" with the Toronto member.

AVOIDING CRITICISM

"I think at the present time, when we are not discussing the actions of another parliament, being very careful not to mention another parliament, the practice should be followed by the commission," the Prime Minister continued.

These were critical times. Even in ordinary times, the Canadian Parliament would not criticize the parliament of another section of the Empire. It was not for the Canadian Parliament to say whether the Liberals, Conservatives or Labor in Great Britain were right or wrong, or interfere in the domestic affairs of another part of the Empire.

The Prime Minister completed his statement by saying perhaps it was unnecessary to say more at the present time on the policy of the commission carrying broadcasts of that nature.

NEW CLAUSES

Three new principles not previously contained in the Radiotelevision Act were included in the new bill, Hon. J. Earl Lawson declared.

A radio inspector could enter and search a man's house on the mere allegation before a magistrate that the man possessed a radio receiving set, Mr. Lawson said. Under the old act only a duly sworn police officer of the Crown could make that search.

Secondly, the mere possession of an unlicensed radio set, even if it was not in operation, was made an indictable offence. The trial judge had no alternative but to levy a fine and impose a jail term.

Finally, if a person were charged with an offence under the act, the onus of proving his innocence rested on the accused.

NOTES CRITICIZED

Mr. Lawson described as "deceptive" explanatory notes at the top of the bill saying it clarified the old act and brought it up to date by transferring to the Canada Shipping Act the sections dealing with shipping.

Transport Minister Howe replied the explanatory notes clearly called attention to the

May 23 Is Not To Be Holiday

OTTAWA (CP)—Victoria Day cannot be changed this year from May 24 to May 23 to permit its celebration on a Monday, Prime Minister King told the House of Commons Tuesday afternoon.

The holiday was fixed by statute and could only be changed by Parliament changing the statute. The Governor-in-Council had no power to fix the day as it had in the case of Thanksgiving Day and some other holidays.

Roumania Shot Is Accidental

Gun Dropped by Policeman Discharged in Bucharest Parade

BUCHAREST (CP-Havas)—A police agent's pistol was accidentally discharged when it dropped and struck an automobile running board Tuesday at the end of a military review in celebration of Roumanian independence, Rador (official Roumanian news agency) announced.

Police Agent Spiridon's pistol dropped from his holster and went off as he was entering an automobile with his chief, according to the account. Spiridon was slightly wounded in the foot and received medical attention at a nearby hospital, it was stated.

The Rador statement made no mention of King Carol in connection with the incident. A Reuter's news agency dispatch from Bucharest said the king was nearby at the time. Otherwise it bore out the Rador version.

Big Sheep Losses In New Zealand

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP-Reuters)—A serious outbreak of facial eczema among sheep and cattle in the rich Waikato district, has led to the slaughter at Auckland since the beginning of March of 27,000 sheep and lambs judged unfit for human consumption.

One farmer is sending his last flock of 4,000 sheep for slaughter. Many farms have had to resort to tinned milk. Other districts are affected, but less seriously.

KOKSILAH

The first regular meeting of Koksilah Women's Institute was held last week at the home of Mrs. C. Harrison. Committees were elected and it was decided to give prizes to two students in Koksilah School for courtesy in the school yard. A dance on May 20 at Cowichan Station was arranged with the following committee in charge: Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. Neil, Mrs. W. Vaux, Mrs. I. Robson, Mrs. J. Gibson and Mrs. C. Harrison. The next general meeting will be held June 1.

Padlock Raids In Quebec Total 124

QUEBEC (CP)—Under the Quebec "padlock law" against Communism, provincial police in Montreal during the six-month period, November-April, carried out 124 raids and seized newspapers, books, pamphlets and reports, the Attorney-General's Department announced Tuesday. The department said two Communist offices were padlocked, along with two printing shops turning out Communist propaganda or newspapers, and two Communist schools.

Large Prices Are Paid For Stamps

NEW YORK (AP)—Stamps which originally sold for pennies brought "folding money" Tuesday at the auction of the Cortlandt F. Bishop collection. A 4-cent magenta British Guiana went for $390. An 1850 orange British Guiana at the same original price returned $540. A provisional issue of a 5-cent 1845 stamp of Baltimore, Md., brought $20. Three $500 black, red and green United States revenue stamps issued in 1871 brought a total of $2,800.

To Publish 50,000 Maps of the Island

Fifty thousand copies of the Montana edition of the Vancouver Island map will be printed, Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau reports.

The reason it is called the Montana edition is that on the reverse side there is a strip map showing Highway 10 down to the coast and then turns east and runs through Montana. The maps will be forwarded to all correspondents writing from eastern centres who will be using that highway, also to travel bureaus, travel organizations, hotels and cabin camps in the east. Besides the maps there is reading matter describing Victoria and Island attractions. The

Severe Quake Recorded Here

Tremor Stated "Of Worst Kind" By Detroit Scientist

A severe earthquake of about 15 minutes duration was recorded on the seismograph at the Dominion Meteorological Bureau Observatory here today, starting at 6:51.55 a.m., P.S.T., Observatory officials said.

The tremor was placed at about 2,670 miles from here, probably in a south-easterly direction.

DENVER (AP) — The Rev. A. M. Forestall, seismologist at Regis College here, said his instruments recorded an earthquake "of the worst kind" today.

"I estimated the centre of the shocks was about 1,500 miles from Denver and possibly on the North American continent," he said. "The direction could not be ascertained. However, it was undoubtedly very destructive if it occurred in a populated area."

Plotted on a map, these distances would indicate the earthquake occurred in southern Mexico.

MOTORCYCLIST KILLED

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Death from new traffic injuries claimed Arnold Hawkins, 31, today, just three days after he had ended a seven-month stay in a hospital as a result of a previous traffic accident. Hawkins, riding a motorcycle, collided with an automobile last night in Menlo Park.

Island map has been revised and brought up to date and now shows Rooster's Comb, which is the highest surveyed mountain on the island, 7,219 feet, and also Zeballos. The map is tied up with the mainland through the ferry routes, which are clearly marked and also shows the coastline of the State of Washington and the Olympia Peninsula.

A larger edition of the island map, showing Pacific Coast highways on the reverse side will be published shortly by the bureau.

RELIEF ROLLS REVEAL SHIFT

Provincial Load Lighter in March After Unemployables Refused Aid

Provincial relief rolls dropped by about 6,600 individuals between February and March but the cause was not so much an improvement in the employment situation as the fact that the province has stopped contributing to aid for unemployables and March was the tail-end month for the winter forest camps.

The government's new policy of making municipalities fully responsible for unemployables went into effect March 1. Department officials were unable to give a complete estimate of the numbers that were turned over under this ruling, but the total figures for direct relief showed a decline of 1,376 family heads with 2,273 dependents between February and March.

This was taken to represent the bulk of the unemployables from whom provincial contribution was withdrawn. The total probably was slightly larger, it was explained because the ordinary direct relief for March likely was a little higher than in February.

Provincial rolls for March showed 63,907 persons getting assistance. This included 13,893 heads of families, 40,146 dependents, 7,167 single persons and 2,719 men in forest camps and on farm placement schemes. The February total was 70,518 individuals, including 15,269 family heads, 42,419 dependents, 8,913 single persons and 3,897 in camps and farm placement jobs. By comparison with last year, however, the relief situation showed a decided improvement. The list for March, 1937, totaled 80,872. Even taking into account the fact that unemployables have been struck off provincial relief this meant a decrease of about 11,000 individuals on relief.

The death took place at an early hour this morning in Seattle of Stanley Boyd Russell, third son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Russell, pioneer residents of this city. Mr. Russell was born in Victoria, 53 years ago, but had resided in Seattle for a number of years. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Rusk of Seattle and one brother, Rev. R. V. Russell of New York.

WORKS PLAN IS FAVORED

Single Men Action Up to Ottawa, Says Pearson; Does Not Want Camps

The provincial government is opposed to reopening the forest camps for single men and, if Ottawa feels that assistance should be provided for the men, thinks the best means is by public works handled on a contract basis that will ensure a portion of relief labor being employed.

This outline of the government's policy toward the single men was given today by Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, in face of repeated pressure from Vancouver for provincial aid to the men.

"Of course," the minister said, "we will co-operate in any plan the federal government thinks advisable. But we are not recommending the reopening of the camps."

Mr. Pearson said department records for last year showed that nearly half the men from the camps did not come back and presumably got employment somewhere. If the camps had been kept open during the summer most of them would have stayed and would not have got jobs in private industry.

On public works contract jobs, as had been done in the last two years, it could be stipulated that a certain portion of labor must be relief men, he said. These jobs would be on a fair competitive basis for the men themselves.

The minister intimated the problem was one for the Dominion to meet. Records show that 1,800 of the 4,700 men who went through the camps were from the prairies or other provinces.

He disputed the large estimates of the number of men who are reportedly without means of support in Vancouver now.

Out of the 4,700 who went through the camps, 1,000 either left camp to go to jobs, were discharged for cause or otherwise disappeared, he said. Another 1,906 have deferred pay cheques to cash this week. Others have left the coast, so that less than 2,000 men might be without funds in Vancouver this week.

CLERGYMEN IN RUSSIA JAILED

MOSCOW (AP) — The arrest of more than a dozen clergymen in Leningrad province on charges of "Fascist spying, debauchery and plotting against the Soviet regime" was reported today in the Atheist newspaper Bezbozhnik.

The newspaper said a former metropolitan, Serafim Ruzhentsoff, and two bishops were among the Orthodox clergymen involved. Buzhentsoff was accused of debauches with altar girls. The bishops were charged with corruption of nuns.

It also mentioned Adventist and Baptist pastors were said to have acted as spies for Germany.

Some clergymen were accused of writing anti-Soviet articles against collective farming. Others were charged with inventing "anti-Soviet miracles."

The charges were like those in recently-announced arrests in Moscow province.

No Aid Offered Woman At Trial

SEATTLE (AP) — Detective Chief Ernest Yoris said today De-Casto Earl Mayer had declared he would "not lift a finger" to save his 72-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary Eleanor Smith, from the gallows for the James E. Bassett slaying 10 years ago which she said a few days ago Mayer committed in her presence.

"She got herself into this mess — now let's see her get herself out," Yoris quoted the 43-year-old Mayer as replying when the officer informed him full admission of the killing might save Mrs. Smith's life.

Yoris said he told Mayer "it might be that if you lead us to Bassett's body it will save your mother's life."

Mayer, who signed a confession of the Bassett killing, but later repudiated it, refused Yoris's suggestion and berated his mother for having confessed the 10-year-old crime, the detective said.

A few minutes later Yoris summoned Mrs. Smith and told her of Mayer's declaration.

"I can't believe it — my son wouldn't do a thing to harm me," Yoris quoted her as replying.

Yoris said later he believed the body of Bassett never would be found.

"I don't think she knows where it is and he won't tell," Yoris said. "I see no reason for pursuing the search further. We have sufficient evidence to send at least Mayer to the gallows."

Chichibu Stated To Be in China

SHANGHAI (AP) — Prince Chichibu, brother of Emperor Hirohito of Japan, is reported to have arrived in Shanghai several days ago for a tour of the war zones.

Japanese officials would neither confirm nor deny the presence of the 35-year-old prince, but informed persons understood he had reached Shanghai last week and planned to visit the battle areas by airplane.

Late in the nineteenth century, paper mills of Sweden used straw extensively as raw material for making wrapping paper.

War Memorial

Like wars on other continents, the conflict in China has its heroes — and above is pictured China's monument to Lo Chun-ting, ace pilot shot down by Japanese gunners on the Hwangho River front. The grave is near the spot where the Chinese flier fell, and the memorial at its head is a simple wooden plank, peaked like a temple and adorned with an epitaph.

No Commons Vote On Oriental Bills

One of Neill's Measures Ruled Out; Time Lacking For Other

OTTAWA (CP)—Downfall of Japan as a world power and the emergence of China as "a strong, virile and united nation" with 400,000,000 potential customers for Canada's products was forecast in the House of Commons last night by A. W. Neill, Independent, Comox-Alberni.

A blank sheet of paper and the ticking of a clock prevented Mr. Neill succeeding in two attempts to have the House declare for exclusion of Oriental immigration to Canada.

Relying on a House rule seldom invoked, Prime Minister King objected to one bill, No. 38, sponsored by the British Columbia member which would have the effect of limiting Canadian immigration to European races. The bill was ruled out of order by Speaker Pierre Casgrain because there was no note attached explaining its object. The right-hand page of the bill, usually reserved for the explanatory note, had been left blank.

A few minutes later, Mr. Neill moved second reading of another bill, No. 11, which would place Japanese immigration on the same footing as Chinese, amounting to virtual exclusion. But he spoke so long the hour for private members' legislation expired before he finished. It will be discussed later in the session.

TO STUMP ISLAND

The British Columbia member, outspoken for years in his efforts to exclude Japanese immigration, told the government he had not finished his fight. He said he would stump Vancouver Island during the next election, explaining what had happened to his immigration bill.

British Columbia, he said, would never be content until Japanese were excluded from the country. Apparently the Government could be moved to action only by the overwhelming vote of the people of the Pacific province.

In moving second reading of Bill 38, Mr. Neill said it did not contain the word exclusion, nor did it name any race or country. It did not apply only to Orientals but to 74 per cent of the people of the world.

OLIVE BRANCH

Bill 38 was a legislative olive branch for the Prime Minister, Mr. Neill suggested. It did not mention the Japanese and could not lead to some unpleasant incident. For the present, he was ready to abandon Bill 11, his Japanese exclusion bill, if the government would accept Bill 38. However, British Columbia would inform the government at the next election what its wishes were on the subject of Japanese exclusion.

The British Columbia government favored exclusion of Japanese immigrants, he continued, and the transportation of Japanese nationals back to the Orient.

The Prime Minister then made his objections to the bill because it had no explanatory note and the Speaker ruled it out of order. During the discussion, Mr. Neill found one government bill which had no explanatory note, a bill amending the natural resources agreement with the prairie provinces.

COMMISSION'S INQUIRY

In moving second reading of Bill 11, designed to exclude Japanese from the country by placing them on an immigration equality with the Chinese, Mr. Neill said the government had established a commission to determine how many Japanese were in the country illegally, but of the three members, one was a Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman and another official of the Immigration Department—the two government services which would be blamed if large numbers of Japanese were found to be here illegally.

"Does anyone think," Mr. Neill asked, "that those men are going to condemn themselves?"

SPEAKS OF MINISTER

"It might be a good idea if we could help China forget the way our minister treated them," Mr. Neill said. "We sent to Japan an infirm old man, unversed in diplomacy, not acquainted with the country, and he allowed himself to be loaded up to the hilt with Japanese propaganda."

"Then he came back and disseminated it through Canada. It was not a globe-trotting tourist who could be passed by with a smile. He was our accredited minister. Do you think China has forgotten that?"

(Mr. Neill presumably was referring to Hon. Randolph Bruce, Canadian minister at Tokio.) "If expediency is to govern," Mr. Neill continued, "by all means let us play with China because before long Japan will no longer be a powerful nation and she does not know the meaning of the word gratitude."

"China will come back a strong, virile and united nation, with a sense of gratitude to those who have been her friends and offering an enormous potential market of 400,000,000 people to take our goods."

There were 30,000 Japanese in British Columbia and, judging from the present course of events in Europe a time might come when Japan would demand her nationals in this country be given the vote, said Mr. Neill. Japanese could not be assimilated. "Let us consider British Columbia, which will be a bloody shambles if there is a war in the Pacific."

Scores Second Successive Victory in English County Cricket

LONDON—Two successive victories sent Lancashire into the lead in the English county cricket championship yesterday. The northern county followed up a ten-wickets triumph over Warwickshire last week by defeating Hampshire by an innings and 160 runs.

The Australians turned in their third straight victory, outclassing Leicestershire to win by an innings and 163 runs, and the Yorkshire-Oxford University game ended in a draw.

The scores: Hampshire, 277 and 141; Lancashire, 578 for six wickets, declared.

Somerset, 128 and 248; Surrey, 521 for nine, declared.

Essex, 450 and 260 (O'Connor 113); Kent, 548 and 164 for four wickets.

Worcestershire, 286 and 198 for six; Sussex, 77 and 404 (James Langridge 119, John Langridge 110).

Gloucestershire, 389 and 206 for eight, declared; Derbyshire, 314 and 142.

Leicestershire, 212 and 214 (Dempster 105); Australians, 590 for five, declared.

Yorkshire, 420 and 39 runs for no wickets; Oxford University, 251 and 344 for eight, declared (Dixon 208).

Field Day For Women Members

Prizes for long driving, putting and approaching will be played for at the field day on Friday, May 13, arranged for the women members of the Uplands Golf Club. It is expected that the entry list will reach 30. The competitions will begin at 10. After lunch two-ball foursomes will conclude the event.

U.S. PACIFIC PLAN UPHELD

New York Paper Commends Scheme For Aerial Patrol Line

NEW YORK (CP)—An editorial blessing was bestowed by the New York Herald Tribune Tuesday on the U.S. navy proposal to establish a line of air patrols down the middle of the Pacific, from Dutch Harbor in the northern Aleutians to Pago Pago, Samoa.

The plan would make possible a continuous patrol along some 5,000 miles of rolling ocean. It would hang on impalpable curtain from the strong wings of navy flying boats, to catch anything that might cross from one-half of the Pacific into the other, the newspaper said.

It was hardly to be expected, it added, that Japanese naval men would look with enthusiasm on the development. But, it argued, an examination would show it could fulfill no offensive function against Japan.

The northern leg of the proposed patrol, from Dutch Harbor through Midway Island to Wake Island, roughly parallels Japan proper and the Chinese mainland.

"Anything coming from the main Asiatic naval bases toward North America would have to cross that line somewhere," the Herald Tribune pointed out.

PRE-EMINENT RACE VICTOR

Whips Sun Egret By Four Lengths in Capturing Jennings Handicap

BALTIMORE—Pre-Eminent, wise six-year-old campaigner wearing Hall Price Headley's navy blue colors, pulled ahead without effort in the stretch yesterday to best Sun Egret, a Preakness candidate, by four lengths in the $2,500 Jennings Handicap.

The six-furlong dash, which drew only three horses, was the first since April 23 for Sun Egret, A. C. Compton's chestnut colt. He was not forced in yesterday's conditioner for the $70,000 Preakness, on Saturday, and is a likely starter since he showed he is in good shape after a minor leg injury suffered in the Chesapeake Stakes at Havre de Grace.

T. J. Healey's Black Look, the only other starter, was two and a half lengths back of Sun Egret. Pre-Eminent paid $350 in earning the winner's purse of $2,100.

Bright Comedy At The Atlas

Cary Grant and Katharine Hepburn Play in "Bringing Up Baby"

A romance between a society girl and a professor of zoology develops into the screen's maddest love affair to date, in "Bringing Up Baby," new RKO Radio film which co-stars Katharine Hepburn and Cary Grant and now being shown at the Atlas theatre.

Grant, at first true to his work, finally succumbs to the wiles of Miss Hepburn, but only after she leads him a merry chase and drags him into adventures which include scouring the countryside in pursuit of a leopard, landing in jail, and other hilarious experiences.

May Robson, Charlie Ruggles, Barry Fitzgerald and Fritz Feld are also in the cast.

MacDonald, Eddy Here Tomorrow

California in all its romantic glory of the gold rush and mission days is brought to the screen in "The Girl of the Golden West," co-starring Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, and coming tomorrow to the Capitol Theatre.

A lavish musical, the new picture introduces several original musical numbers by Sigmund Romberg and Gus Kahn and a spectacular early Californian festival, "The Mariachi."

The supporting cast includes Walter Pidgeon, Leo Carrillo, Buddy Ebsen, Leonard Penn, Priscilla Lawson, Bob Murphy, Olin Howard and Cliff Edwards.

DOMINION THEATRE

A romantic story of young love, played against background music of Liszt, Moskowski, Chopin and Strauss, is brought to the screen of the Dominion Theatre, today in "Stolen Heaven." At the head of the cast is Olympe Bradna, who swept Hollywood off its feet after George Raft discovered her for "Souls at Sea," and handsome Gene Raymond.

PLAZA THEATRE

Love which defied a throne is the immortal theme of "Glamorous Night," Republic release which is now showing at the Plaza Theatre. Mary Ellis and Otto Kruger have the leading roles, and the supporting players include Victor Jory, Barry Mackay, Trevor Jones, Anthony Holles, Maire O'Neill, Charles Carson, Felix Aylmer and Finlay Currie.

COLUMBIA THEATRE

In Rudyard Kipling's "Wee Willie Winkle," Twentieth Century Fox film now at the Columbia Theatre, Shirley Temple gets her first "leading man," Douglas Scott, talented eleven-year-old who shared juvenile honors with Freddie Bartholomew in "Lloyds of London."

OAK BAY THEATRE

Newest of the colored motion picture "finds" is Troy Brown. He plays the pseudo-sultan in "Nothing Sacred," now at the Oak Bay theatre. A dancer and singer, as well as an actor, the big fellow can do the splits, and, if Director William A. Wellman can find a spot in the script, will try it on the screen.

PROTEST OVER ANGUS REMARK

Rowell Board Member's Suggestion For Oriental Vote Scored in Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Reported remarks of Professor H. F. Angus, British Columbia member of the Rowell Commission, regarding extension of the franchise to Orientals in British Columbia brought protest from the Congress of Canadian Organizations here, it was reported today.

The organizations have sent their protest by wire to Prime Minister King.

The telegram said:

"It has come to the attention of this organization that Professor Angus of the Rowell Commission has been advocating in public in Toronto that Orientals in British Columbia be granted the franchise."

"The question of Oriental franchise in British Columbia is a matter over which the people of this province should have complete jurisdiction."

"The Congress of Canadian Organizations protests strongly against this demonstration of bad taste by a commissioner discussing questions of British Columbia policy while drawing salary as a member of a commission whose duties are to report on provincial-federal relationships."

"(Professor Angus was quoted as saying in an address at Toronto last Thursday that he favored granting full national rights to Orientals in Canada.)"

"The best way to deal with the problem is to grant them full rights of citizenship," he was quoted.

"It is the best way to make them good citizens. Interfere with their self-respect and you make an inferior race of them."

The congress embraces the following organizations: The Native Sons of British Columbia, Posts 2 and 11; Native Sons of Canada, Assembly No. 2; British Columbia Trollers' Association; Canadian Amalgamated Association of Seamen; League of Canadian Maples; White Canada Association and Western Canada Labor Federation.

River Floods In Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A new rise of an inch and a half in the level of the flooding Mississippi River in the Aitkin, Minn., area necessitated evacuation of several additional families today.

Adjutant-Gen. Ellard A. Walsh said rescuers turned their attention to a 250-acre mile lake formed when the rain-swollen river inundated sparsely settled, low-lying swamp and lake lands.

Izaak Walton's Home Destroyed

STAFFORD, Eng. (AP)—The ancient, half-timbered cottage of Izaak Walton, the 17th century "father of angling," was destroyed by fire today while the caretaker was frying fish for lunch.

Many Walton relics were lost in the blaze.

B.C. Temperance Head Re-elected

VANCOUVER (CP)—Rev. Andrew Rodan of the First United Church, Vancouver, today began his second year, as president of the British Columbia Temperance League. He was named again to the presidency at the Tuesday session of the league's annual convention here.

Included in the district representatives named are Mrs. W. G. Wilkinson, Victoria; Robert Sanderson, Nanaimo; E. Somers of Nelson, Kootenay, and Rev. J. C. Jackson, Prince Rupert.

Mrs. Garrett Of Cranbrook Dies

CRANBROOK, B.C. (CP)—Funeral arrangements were being made today for the late Mrs. C. B. B. Garrett, a resident of British Columbia for 33 years, who died in a hospital Tuesday.

She was the daughter of the late William Eassie, prominent civil engineer of London, England. She had lived in Cranbrook since her marriage in 1919.

U.S. VOLUNTEERS LEAVING SPAIN

LE HAVRE, France (AP)—The flight of American volunteers formerly with government forces in Spain has brought an influx of former soldiers to Le Havre seeking passage home.

Sixteen already stranded here said today 12 more were hiking up from southern France. Le Havre was believed to have the largest concentration of American refugees from the Spanish civil war. The exodus, they said, started after the government's Lincoln-Washington Battalion was broken at Gandesa April 1 in the insurgent drive to the Mediterranean.

INDIA ARMY CHANGES SOON

Reorganization to Make For Greater Efficiency and Saving in Cost

LONDON (CP)—Widespread changes in the organization of certain military commands and districts in India have been approved and changes will take place during October and November of this year. They are expected to increase efficiency of the army for war and accomplish an annual saving in expenditures in peace-time.

The Western Command, it is learned, will be abolished and will be replaced by a western district, with headquarters at Quetta. The new western district will comprise the same area as that for which the Western Command is now responsible and will include the area of the Sind (Independent) Brigade, which will lose its present independent status.

Three brigades of covering troops will be formed in the new district and these brigades will be allotted a task similar to that of covering troops which already exist in the military district of the Northwest Frontier.

The task of covering troops is to control the frontier tribes, to cover the mobilization and concentration of the field army in the event of active operations beyond the frontier.

MacDonald May Take New Office

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Express and the Daily Mail, both independent London papers, predicted today Dominion Secretary Malcolm MacDonald will be made Colonial Secretary if that post is resigned by the Baron Harlech—William Ormsby-Gore, who succeeded to the title on the death of his father, Sunday.

If Mr. MacDonald accepts the Colonial Office, Lord Stanley, Under-Secretary of State for India, may become Dominions Secretary, the Daily Express added.

Lindbergh Not To Return to U.S.

SAN DIEGO, Cal. (AP)—Friends of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh said today he would end his voluntary exile in England and return to the United States only in the event his services were needed during war-time or in some other national emergency.

Monkey in Roof Of Halifax School

HALIFAX (CP)—Not all the little monkeys which escaped from the ill-fated freighter City of Salisbury were recaptured. One of the fugitive simians was hiding in the rafters of the Morris Street School today.

Pupils and janitor Harry Andrews chased the monkey through the corridors with bananas and nuts in an attempt to recapture it, but this afternoon the animal still was loose.

Nine Killed As House Collapses

ROTTERDAM, Netherlands (AP)—Nine persons were crushed to death today when an ancient house on the Hoogstraat collapsed and they were caught in the debris.

A woman, her baby and seven men were killed. The Hoogstraat is the city's busiest street and it was jammed by rush-hour crowds.

SEEDING IN ONTARIO

TORONTO (CP)—Nearly 50 per cent of grain seeding in Ontario has been completed and farm work is from two to three weeks earlier than last season's case for the last two seasons as a result of favorable weather in April, the Provincial Department of Agriculture reported today.

Wheat Futures Gain One Cent

WINNIPEG (CP)—Liberal Winnipeg July wheat sellers turned to the buying side in late stages today to lift futures from maximum low of 2 1/2 cents. Final quotations were 1/2 cent lower to 1 cent higher, May $1.15 1/2, July $1.06 1/2 and October 88 1/2 to 89 1/2 cents.

The market rallied briskly in late stages in sympathy with higher Chicago prices that resulted from reports of rust damage in the United States southwest winter wheat belt.

Canadian export sales were small. Traders suggested the 2 1/2-cent setback in July occurred in liquidation induced possibly by the more than 18-cent spread between the July and October futures.

Liverpool closed 1/2 cent higher to 1 1/2 pence. Buenos Aires noon prices were unchanged to 1/2 cent up.

Cash wheat dealings were dull. Spreads on top grades of red spring eased. Coarse grains averaged higher due to export demand for barley, domestic interest in oats and investment support for rye.

CHICAGO (AP)—Upturns predominated in Chicago wheat prices today, and late bulge of around 2 cents a bushel were witnessed.

Crop deterioration reports from the southwest, Oklahoma and Texas in particular, attracted sharp notice. The Texas crop in some areas was declared a failure to five bushels an acre average, depending on weather the next four weeks.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 higher compared with yesterday's finish, May 81 1/2 to 81 3/4, July 79 1/2 to 79 3/4, corn 1/2 to 1/4 up, May 58 1/2 to 59 1/2, and oats 1/4 to 1/2 up.

Calgary Oils

CALGARY (CP)—In dull trading most oil stocks registered fractional losses on the Calgary Stock Exchange today.

Share Royalties, a new issue, was listed today, selling 500 shares at 9 cents each. National Petroleum dropped 1 1/2 to 28 1/2; Brown 1/2 at 52 1/2 and Commonwealth the same at 32. Davies Petroleum was down 1 at 52.

C. & E. advanced 5 to 2.60 and Home Oil 1 to 11.31.

MAN IN HOSPITAL IS TO TESTIFY

PRINCETON, B.C.—William Peat, 23-year-old plasterer and Bible student, will appear in court here Thursday for preliminary hearing on a charge of attempted murder.

The charge was laid after his 50-year-old father and 13-year-old brother, Archie, had been attacked near here 10 days ago.

The father's evidence will be taken from his cot in the Princeton hospital, where he is recovering from a fracture of the skull. Archie Peat has been released from the hospital.

C. F. R. Pincoff, Petitioner lawyer, will defend Peat, accused of attacking his father and brother with a hammer and axe.

British Columbia police said an axe had been found near the scene of the alleged skirmish.

BONDS Power Shares Give Market Leadership

NEW YORK (AP)—Rail and utility issues continued to stir a moderate buying interest in today's bond market.

Foreign dollar loans became weak following a sharp decline in Brazilian issues on news of a political uprising in Rio de Janeiro.

Most Treasuries in the U.S. Government list edged a little higher. Brazilian 6 1/2 and 8 1/2 and Sao Paulo State 7 1/2 dropped fractions and a few South American issues and a few Europeans also sold off.

Brazilian Makes Up Part of Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—Electric power shares swung to the front to give the stock market leadership for a resumption of the April-May recovery today.

Most industrials were slow to respond to the bullish signals hoisted in the power division but gains ranging to 2 points or more were general throughout the list.

Profit-taking retarded the advance as leading shares approached the recent highs, although a number of utility shares succeeded in pushing ahead to new peaks for the recovery.

Rails fell in step with the rise and carrier bonds added their strength to a further advance in the investment market.

Transactions slowed a bit, totaling about 900,000 shares.

Utility holding shares continued to hold the speculative spotlight on reports of co-operative moves among federal authorities and private interests for solution of the industry's problems.

Key commodities attracted more buying. Wheat spurred for net gains of 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents a bushel in face of the government's increased crop estimates. Corn finished 1/2 to 1/4 cent higher.

Bonds pushed ahead today to new peaks for the April-May advance under further spirited buying of rails and utilities.

Metals Firm; List Generally Steady

TORONTO (CP)—The stock market tone was firm to strong in late action today after all indices had shown moderate losses at noon. Volume was fair at about 550,000 shares.

Brazilian recovered part of an early loss of 1 1/2, getting back to 1 1/4 on a report the Brazilian government had restored order in Brazil following a political revolt.

Beaumont, International Utilities B and Shawinigan showed net gains.

Canadian Car, Dominion Steel B and United Steel were mildly soft while Dominion Foundries registered a gain of 1 1/4 to a new high.

Lake Shore and Dome were weaker and the close was down narrowly for Macassa, Pamour, Teck-Hughes, Canadian Aluminite, McKenzie, MacLeod, Cockshutt and San Antonio. International Nickel, Smelters, Hudson Bay, Sudbury Basin and Denison Nickel all were up.

In the western oil group prices were slightly down for Dalhousie, Argal, Foothills, Davies and Calmont. Royalty dropped a half point.

Science in Detective Work

3—TALES TOLD BY DUST

Could a little dust tell something about a crime? A German expert named Hans Gross thought perhaps it could. A piece of clothing had been found near the scene of a crime, and he put it in a paper bag. Then he beat it with a paddle.

Studying dust under the microscope.

Dust fell into the bag, and it was examined with great care. There were bits of wood in the dust, also some powdered glue. "I believe," said Gross, "that the man who wore that clothing worked with wood, and probably was a wood-jointer." The guilty man was located, and turned out to be a cabinet-maker!

This case, and others, helped prove that a great deal could be learned from dust. Edmund Locard, a high police officer of Lyons, France, went on with the work. Instead of beating the clothing, however, he used a vacuum cleaner to pull the dust out.

Nowadays it is a common thing to use a microscope to examine dust from the coat, hat, tie, handkerchief or other objects left behind after a crime. Even a pocket knife with no fingerprints on it may hold dust which tells a tale.

Sometimes a person is arrested who may be either innocent or guilty, and the question comes up, "Where has he been?" This may be answered by a careful study of his shoes. Dust and mud collect on shoes, and may stay on them several days. Under the microscope, this material is looked at closely, and facts are learned about places a person has walked through.

Even the story left by dust in the wax of the ears is put on record. It is strange how many things can be learned from earwax!

To study the earwax of a suspect is going rather deeply into the "third degree" methods of former times. Some out-of-date police officers practice the "third degree" even today, but the public does not like it, and judges often are angered when they learn about it.

To pound a man until he confesses is not a good way to find the truth. Neither is starving him, or putting him in the glare of blinding lights. All too often it makes the poor fellow confess to something he has not done. It is like the torture of the Middle Ages, when victims were stretched or twisted or torn until they said, "Yes, I said that," or "Yes, that is what I believed."

It is far better to try to learn the truth in clever ways which science has pointed out.

UNCLE RAY.

HOROSCOPE

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1938

Again the planets appear to frown upon the earth. According to astrology, adverse aspects dominate today.

While good luck should attend initiative, all beginnings should be made with foresight and caution. There are many hazards in new business ventures.

The signing of important contracts should be delayed, for news of a disconcerting character may be expected on this date. The idea of universal brotherhood and friendship will appear to be eradicated from the minds of men.

Russia continues under a rule of the stars which promises unusual developments. There may be sudden changes among officials long in authority.

Travel accidents are numerous. Sabotage is foretold in industrial activities.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of fairly good fortune, although there may be losses through frauds. Warning is given against illicit business of any sort.

Children born on this day probably will be sensitive in nature and keen in mind. Subjects of this sign may have imagination and real vision.

Florence Nightingale, famous nurse, was born on this day 1820. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Sir Arthur Sullivan, composer, 1842; James Sheridan Knowles, English dramatist, 1784.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—My husband is a traveling salesman and comes home only once in two weeks. We have a three-year-old daughter who begins crying the minute her father sets foot inside the house. At first he is patient with her, then it irritates him because she cries so much and won't have anything to do with him, and he punishes her. I love my husband and he is really the kindest of men, but when he punishes the child it is worse to me than if he punished me. I would rather he would strike me than to strike her. My whole being revolts against it until I actually hate him and wish him dead while he is punishing her. What shall I do? Shall I leave him and take the child with me? I am nearly frantic.

S. M.

Answer: Certainly not. You would be wrong and foolish to break up your home for so small a thing as a baby's crying because she is afraid of a father she sees so seldom that she doesn't know him. Many a child screams as if it were being murdered if a stranger attempts to touch it.

The thing for you to do is first to try to understand the situation and realize that the reason your husband is impatient with the child is because he is hurt and mortified by her not being willing to have anything to do with him. He loves her. He longs to hold her in his arms and have her snuggle up against his breast and make a fuss over her daddy. On his long, hard trips he dreams of the little face watching at the window for him and little feet running to meet him, and when instead he finds a little fury who screams her head off at sight of him, in his anger and resentment and jealousy he punishes her.

He is wrong, of course, in doing so, for that only makes a bad matter worse. What he should do is not even to speak to her until she forgets her grievance against him, and he should woo her with as much tact and as many gifts as he would bestow in courting a Lady Love.

And your cue is to build up the father in the child's mind as a sort of Fairy Prince, someone who loves her and is good to her and gives her all the pretty clothes she has. Children take their opinions of their father from their mothers, and you can teach your little girl to adore her father if you will. Keep talking to the child about her daddy. Familiarize her with him and you can cure her of her fear of him.

Aberhart Goes To Saskatchewan

Manning Accompanies Alberta Premier For Provincial Election Campaign

EDMONTON (CP)—Premier William Aberhart of Alberta, leader of the western Canada Social Credit Association, and Hon. E. C. Manning, Alberta Provincial Secretary and chief organizer for the association, today were en route to Saskatchewan to confer with Social Credit leaders on the Saskatchewan provincial election campaign.

Mr. Aberhart and Mr. Manning left here last night, and it is expected they will visit Regina and Saskatoon before returning to Edmonton on Friday or Saturday.

While in Saskatchewan, Premier Aberhart and Mr. Manning are expected to meet key men of the Social Credit organization regarding nominating conventions and public meetings.

READY FOR CAMPAIGN

REGINA (CP)—Saskatchewan politicians waited today for an expected whirlwind election campaign. Although the date has not yet been set, a provincial general election is expected in June.

Officers of the newly-formed Western Canada Social Credit Association are slated to take leading roles in the campaign.

Hon. E. C. Manning, Alberta provincial secretary and chief organizer of the Western Canada Social Credit Association, is in a title role.

Premier Aberhart of Alberta, leader of the association, and Hon. Solon Low, Alberta provincial treasurer and president of the association, will speak during the campaign.

Premier W. J. Patterson, leader of the Liberal government, said Liberals would be nominated in all but one of Saskatchewan's 52 seats by the end of the week, but his government had not decided definitely to go to the po-

New Company, With 65-Foot Boat, Given Seattle-
Victoria Mail Contract

Because of loss of the mail contract between Victoria, Seattle and Port Angeles, the Puget Sound Navigation Company is expected to withdraw from the route after the summer tourist season and give way to a new company, which was recently awarded the contract.

The steamers Iroquois and Olympic will be on the Victoria-Port Angeles run all summer, handling passengers, cargo, motor cars and mails.

If the company takes its ships from this service it will sever connections that have linked Victoria with Seattle, Port Angeles and Port Townsend for many years. It may also mean there will be no passenger or freight services between Victoria, Port Angeles and Port Townsend during the winter months.

Officials of the line have said it is impossible to operate successfully without a mail subsidy.

The new company, which has received the contract, recently launched, at a ship plant on Lake Union, Seattle, a 65-foot boat with a 250-horsepower Diesel engine which will give her a speed of 12 knots.

She was designed by Edwin G. Monk, Seattle naval architect for Dr. M. Broedel of Stockton, California.

Already 40 Liberals are in the field.

Mr. Patterson said today in an interview he considered the Social Credit Party the mystery element in the campaign. "If an election campaign was held today, the Social Credit forces would not win a seat," he declared. "But who can tell what will happen three weeks from now?"

G. H. Williams, C.C.F. leader, is confident his party will form a government after the election.

J. G. Diffenbaker, Conservative leader, has publicly urged his party supporters to nominate candidates throughout the province, "to form a Conservative government after the election, irrespective of any other party."

Ants become addicted to the intoxicating juice which exudes from the hairs of the curious beetle, coeloxenus Guenther, of South America, and they neglect their own broods to feed the beetles. The latter are ungrateful parasites, however, and sometimes eat the young ants.

Young Adventurers Fought Death on Cruise

The doughty schooner Yankee is pictured at upper left as she sailed proudly into Gloucester harbor, bearing 20 young men and women adventurers safely home after an 18-month, 35,000-mile round-the-world cruise. The trip included a brush with death when all were badly poisoned by fish near Pitcairn Island, famed haven of the Bounty mutineers. They were nursed back to health by the descendants of the Bounty crew. At left, below, some of the party line the rail for a first glimpse of their homeland; and at right, "Able Seawoman" Helen Shumaker of Buffalo, N.Y., climbs the shrouds to wave to welcoming Gloucesterites.

Non-magnetic Ship Under Construction

British Government Building
Strange Craft For Indian Ocean Cruise

PLYMOUTH, England (AP)—Devon's shipyards have given birth to strange ships over the last few centuries, but none stranger than the one taking shape for the British Government on a still reach of the river Dart.

It is a floating research station to investigate the earth's magnetism and it will be called Research. Constructed almost entirely of non-magnetic material, wood and bronze have been used to replace the usual shipbuilding materials of iron and steel.

Members of the crew will not even be allowed to carry penknives. The hull will be made of teak with the framework, girders and fittings of bronze. Anchor, cables and all the bolts will be of bronze and the cooking utensils and cutlery will be one non-magnetic alloy.

Only non-magnetic ship in the world, the Research will replace the United States ship Carnegie, destroyed by an explosion off Samoa, in 1929.

With a special picked crew of 31, Research will sail next year for a cruise lasting 2½ years. Her immediate task will be to visit certain positions in the South Indian Ocean and to determine the value of the earth's magnetism at those points.

Research will use sail and an auxiliary motor. Her displacement will be 850 tons and she will carry enough fuel to give her a cruising radius of 2,000 miles at a speed of six knots.

RECALLS OLD EVENTS HERE

Roland Gamwell, Visitor
Here, Was in Town Day of Point Ellice Disaster

Yachting events, dog shows and other sporting events that made Victoria the athletic hub of the northwest 40 years ago were recalled here yesterday by Roland Gamwell of Bellingham, who has been in the city for several days to participate in the Spring Garden Festival.

Mr. Gamwell has lived in Bellingham for many years. He is a recognized rose specialist and his rose-gardens there are one of the sights of the city. He recently returned from an extensive motor tour to the east and Florida, where he saw many fine flower shows.

Mr. Gamwell was in Victoria the fateful May 24, 1896, when the Point Ellice bridge collapsed with appalling loss of life. He was in one of the rescue boats and made a number of trips to survivors to the shore, where they were cared for at the home of Capt. and Mrs. William Grant.

The yachting races which Mr. Gamwell came here to attend were staged off the Beacon Hill waterfront. He recalled the gala days they were and how all Victoria turned out and lined the Dallas Road waterfront to watch the various events.

The dog shows, too, were outstanding events, Mr. Gamwell recalled and attracted the finest from neighboring cities.

"Victoria is still the charming city it was in the old days," he said. "I come here about once a year and always feel better for it."

At a gardeners' dinner at the Empress Hotel last night Mr. Gamwell said the friendly hospitality of Victoria would always be treasured by every visitor to the city.

DOWN THE GANGWAY

Every time the liner Niagara crosses the Equator on her voyages between British Columbia and Australia a mythical King Neptune, in the person of one of the passengers who has been across before, boards the ship and, surrounded by his court, initiates all those passengers to whom the experience is a new one.

This voyage, however, there will be a real Neptune aboard—on the passenger list sailing today is a Mr. A. N. Neptune—and it would not be surprising if he were chosen to be the King, who will order the initiates lathered and plunged unceremoniously into the ship's deck pool.

M. Leo Sweeney, managing director of the Canadian Western Co-operative of Victoria and Vancouver, will sail aboard the Niagara on a business trip to New Zealand.

A year ago, in the interests of British Columbia, Mr. Sweeney made a hurried trip to England and Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Grimwale, prominent residents of Melbourne, who traveled from Australia to San Francisco on the world-cruising liner Empress of Britain, will take passage by the Niagara for their home in Australia.

Others going out on the Niagara, which is commanded by Capt. William Martin, include Miss M. E. Barracough, Mrs. and Mrs. J. C. LaBelle, C. C. Bigler, Mr. and Mrs. J. Boon, Mrs. R. P. Bradley, Arthur Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Massey, Florian Matel, Miss Mariano Matel, Nicholas Merola, Rev. W. E. Moren, A. N. Neptune, Alain Nizau, George W. Loading of 1,160,000 feet of Vancouver Island lumber aboard the British freighter Shakespeare, Capt. R. W. Flynn, continued at the Ogden Point piers today and King Brothers, local agents, expected to clear overnight for Port Alberni, where she will complete for the United Kingdom.

Tomorrow morning the Norwegian motorship Elg and the British freighter Pukkanast are expected at Ogden Point to load for London and other ports in the United Kingdom. The former is coming from New Westminster and the latter from McBride Bay.

Three seamen of the British freighter Greagston, which loaded lumber here, deserted last week at Port Tasia, on the west coast of Vancouver Island. Three others, to take their places, were flown the 200 miles from Vancouver and the ship put to sea with only a few hours' delay. The three who left the ship went to the new gold fields near Zeballos.

Outbound for the Orient, the American Mail liner President McKinley was to sail from Seattle at 4 this afternoon direct for Yokohama.

The next ship of this fleet due here from the Far East is the President Jackson, which is scheduled to arrive Sunday evening, May 29. She is the first of the ships on the new schedule, which calls for arrivals here alternate Sunday evenings.

Sa. Princess Marguerite went into drydock at Esquimalt this morning for underwater overhaul by Yarrow's Limited. She will go on the triangle service next week-end.

by the late Mayor Dore, and is a veteran in Pacific Coast marine circles. He is a pilot for the American Mail Line vessels between Victoria, B.C., and Seattle. As port warden he receives a salary of $1 a year.

Sa. Princess Charlotte is expected to carry her capacity of 1,000 passengers when she goes to Port Angeles on Saturday with the annual excursion party of the C.P.R. Social and Athletic Club. She will leave the Belleville Street docks at 1.30 p.m., and returning, leave Port Angeles at 7 p.m.

An excursion from Victoria to Seattle and return has been arranged for May 24. Sa. Princess Elizabeth will leave Victoria at 9 a.m., and will start the return trip from Seattle at 5 p.m.

The former Italian freight and passenger liner Feltre, which was raised from the bottom of the Columbia River last year by Sa. Salvage King of Victoria, is now the Pacific American Fisheries cannery ship Clevedon. She was recently converted, at a cost of $200,000 at the Todd plant in Seattle and will leave shortly for Bristol Bay, Alaska, with cannery workers, fishermen and supplies. Since she was salvaged, she made a voyage from the northwest to China with a cargo of ties and lumber, under charter to Dant and Russell. She returned to Seattle from Hongkong January 21, and went immediately to the Todd plant for conversion.

WIFE WHO WAS CROSS AND TOUCHY

Put Herself Right with Krushen

"I am 39 years of age," a woman writes, "Yet some days I have been feeling and looking 100 years old. I would get fits of exhaustion for no good reason at all. I was not fit to live with because I would be so cross and touchy. I did not seem to have any ambition to do my housework, and I was tired all the time. To years ago I had sciatica all down my left side from the hip. My doctor says all this is caused through my nerves. I took Krushen and found it helped me very much. Since I started taking it I am a different person. My work seems a lot easier and I have a lot more energy." (Mrs.) G.M.

The "little daily dose" of Krushen puts an end to tiredness and depression, because it restores the eliminating organs to proper activity by providing them with the daily reminder and daily aid that they require. Cleansed and invigorating blood is sent circulating all over the system, carrying new vitality to every nerve and new vigor to every limb.
